

DEMOCRATIZATION AND MODERNIZATION IN A MULTILINGUAL CAMEROON

Greg O. Asuagbor

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	iii
Acknowledgments	v
Foreword	vii
Introduction	1
Plan of Study	7
1. Reasons For Political Protests in Africa	11
External Political Factors	13
Internal Political Factors	17
Internal Economic Factors	21
Political Protests in Cameroon	27
Summary	34
2. Democratization And Modernization	37
The Notions of Democratization	37
The Disparities in Democratization	49
Contending Perspectives of Modernization	53
Inherent Assumptions of Modernization	65
Summary	67
3. Re-Thinking Democratization And Modernization	69
Explaining Democratization And Modernization	74
Summary	85
4. Cameroon Politics In The Ahidjo Era	87
The Background of Cameroon	87
Independence And Reunification	90
Creation And Operation of The Authoritarian State	105
The Forging of A Unitary State	110
Summary	116

5.	Towards Democracy	119
	Paul Biya As President	119
	Political Protests And State Response	125
	Struggles For Linguistic Unity	138
	Summary	145
6.	Political Economy Today	149
	Summary	160
7.	The Cameroon Paradox	161
	Summary	179
8.	Conclusion	181
	Future Research	193
	Bibliography	195