

Faulkner and Popular Culture

FAULKNER AND YOKNAPATAWPHA, 1988

EDITED BY DOREEN FOWLER
AND
ANN J. ABADIE

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF MISSISSIPPI
Jackson and London

Contents

Introduction	ix
DOREEN FOWLER
A Note on the Conference	xv
Faulkner and Popular Culture	3
JOSEPH BLOTNER
Faulknerian Folklore: Public Fictions, Private Jokes, and Outright Lies	22
M. THOMAS INGE
Playing Hide and Seek with William Faulkner: The Publicly Private Artist	34
LOUIS J. BUDD
“When I Showed Him the Check, He Asked If It Was Legal”: What William Faulkner Got and Gave Us from Pop Culture	59
GEORGE GARRETT
Pop Goes the Faulkner: In Quest of Sanctuary	75
LESLIE FIEDLER
Photographs in the 1929 Version of Sanctuary	93
DAVID MADDEN
Pop Culture Invades Jefferson: Faulkner’s Real and Imaginary Photos of Desire	110
JUDITH L. SENSIBAR
“The Kotex Age”: Women, Popular Culture, and The Wild Palms	142
ANNE GOODWYN JONES
Harrison Smith: The Man Who Took a Chance on The Sound and the Fury	163
TOM DARDIS

Dismantling the Saturday Evening Post Reader: The Unvanquished and Changing "Horizons of Expectations"	179
SUSAN V. DONALDSON
Sharecropping in the Golden Land	196
BRUCE KAWIN
Faulkner/Reforestation	207
LEON FORREST
Neon Light in August: Electric Signs in Faulkner's Fiction	214
WILLIAM BREVDA
The High Sheriff of Yoknapatawpha County: A Study in the Genius of Place	242
LOUIS D. RUBIN, JR.
Contributors	265
Index	269