

Genocide and Crisis in Central Africa

Conflict Roots, Mass Violence, and Regional War

Christian P. Scherrer
Foreword by Robert Melson

PRAEGER

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Foreword by Robert Melson	ix
Preface	xiii
Acronyms, Abbreviations and Indigenous Expressions	xix
Introduction: From Auschwitz to Central Africa	1
PART I: CENTRAL AFRICA: HISTORY OF A TROUBLED REGION	15
1. On the Historical Background to Preannounced Genocide	17
2. Destructive Interaction between Rwanda and Burundi	37
PART II: THE GENOCIDE IN RWANDA AND ITS CONSEQUENCES	65
3. Preparations for the Genocide, Complicity of Churches and Donors, and the Failure of the United Nations	67
4. Analytical Summary and Regional Chronology 1990–1994	87
5. The State-Organized Genocide in Rwanda	103
6. Mass Murder, Mass Flight, and the Role of United Nations	139
PART III: THE IMPACT OF AID	167
7. Donor Complicity and Failures in Rwanda	169
8. New Aid Priorities since the Genocide	197

PART IV: CRISIS IN THE CENTRAL AFRICAN GREAT LAKES REGION	217
9. Burundi – Rwanda’s False Twin	219
10. Regional War in the Congo	251
11. United Nations and the Congo Crisis: Double Standards and Lack of Will	303
12. Background to the Congo Crisis and Regional Chronology 1994–2001	327
Conclusions and Prospects	363
References and Bibliographic Sources	381
Index	409