MEMORY AND THE MOVING IMAGE

French Film in the Digital Era

Isabelle McNeill

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii
Acknowledgements viii

Introduction: Film and Memory in Contemporary France 1
The Memory of Cinema 1
Remembering History in France 5
The Colonial Fracture and Multidirectional Memory 8
Forms of Filmic Memory 12
Documentary and Fiction 14
Objects, Faces, Cities 15

1 Memory and the Moving Image 19
Theories of Memory 19
Collective Memory and the Supplement 27
Media, Memory and Time 33
The Memory of the Text 45

2 Virtual Museums and Memory Objects 51
Audiovisual Objects and Memory 54
Real and Virtual Museums 63
Beautiful Accidents: Cinematic Debris, Postcards and the Memento Mori 70
Monuments 76
The Filmmaker as Mnemonic Prism 81

3 Facing the Past 87
Bodies, Time and Authenticity 88
Focus on the Face 90
Framing the Face of Testimony 93
Women Face to Face 99

Facing up to the Past 103
Faces in a Misty Light: Women as Cultural Memory 111

4 Memory Maps and City Space 123
Memory and Place 125
Memory and the City 130
Media and Mobile Mapping 135
Between Creativity and Disintegration 139
Hidden in the City 148

Conclusion 160

Filmography 165
Bibliography 168
Index 177