

Citizens and Groups in Contemporary China

edited by Victor C. Falkenheim

Ann Arbor

Center for Chinese Studies
The University of Michigan

1987

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| List of Contributors | vii |
| Preface | ix |
| Chapter 1. Citizen and Group Politics in China: An Introduction Victor C. Falkenheim | 1 |
| Chapter 2. Public and Private Interests and the Participatory Ethic in China Lowell Dittmer | 17 |
| Chapter 3. Communist Social Structure and Workers' Politics in China Andrew G. Walder | 45 |
| Chapter 4. Political Participation of Peasants in China John Burns | 91 |
| Chapter 5. Riding the Tiger: The Political Life of China's Scientists Richard P. Suttmeier | 123 |
| Chapter 6. Dissident Intellectuals in the People's Republic of China Merle Goldman | 159 |
| Chapter 7. Leadership and Participation: The Case of Shanghai's Managers Lynn T. White III | 189 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Chapter 8. The Role of the Military in Chinese Politics | |
| Harry Harding | 213 |
| Notes | 257 |
| Index | 307 |