
The living dead and the living God

Christ and the ancestors in a changing Africa

Klaus Nürnberger

Cluster Publications
Pietermaritzburg

C B Powell Bible Centre
Pretoria

2007

Contents

Preface	v
Foreword by Archbishop Buti Tlhagale	vii
1. What this book is all about	01
The aim 1. The context of the author 1. Why I deal with the topic 4. Current worldview assumptions 8. Traditionalism 9. Modernity 10. Postmodernity 11. The Christian faith 12. How real are the spirits? 14. Terminology 15. Summary 17.
Part I
Traditionalism – Submission to authority	18
2. Let us listen to African spirituality	20
The approach 20. I. African spirituality 21. Dynamism 21. Community 22. The 'living dead' 24. Authority 25. Vitality 26. Sin and evil 27. The Supreme Being 29. (Mythological personification 29. 'Weight' 31. Communicative competence 31. Peak of the hierarchy 32. The underlying experience 33. Qualifications 35.) Uncanny forces 35. Presence 37. Ritual 38. Past orientation 39. II. The deficient impact of the gospel 40. Case study 41. Life in its fullness 43. Community 44. Authority 45. Power 45. Theology of the cross 46. Presence 47. Familiarity 49. Too small a God 50. Ritual 51. Past orientation 52. Mourning 52. Appreciation of the missionary venture 53. Summary 54.
3. Let us listen to the biblical witness	56
The task 56. I. Ancestors in the OT and NT 57. Importance of history for Israel 57. Family ancestors 58. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob 59. Ancestry in the NT 60. The bottom line 62. II. The rationale of biblical exclusivism 63. Divine-human relationships 63. Family religion 64. Public religion 65. Fate of the family cult 67. Was monotheism situational and temporary? 67. Religious imperialism? 69. Taking other convictions seriously 70. III Authority and community 71. In Africa 71. In the OT 72. In the NT 73. Authority 74. IV. Otherworldly salvation 76. Biblical origins 76. In the church 77. V. Institutional authority 78. The provisional nature of authority 80. Leaving the past behind 81. VI. The communion of saints 83. Unconditional acceptance 83. Fate of non-believers 84. The authority of the deceased 85. (Paul 85. Revelation 86. Col and Eph 87. Hebrews 88. John 89.) VII. Death and resurrection 89. Similarities 91. (Spiritual reality 93. Bodily reality 94.) Differences 95. VIII. Enculturation 96. Absorption or syncretism? 98. Maintaining the meaning 99. Speculation 99. African metaphors 100. Logical consistency 101. The ongoing task 104. Summary 105.
4. Let us listen to the Reformation	108
The task 108. Why Luther? 109. I. Who God wants to be for us 110. Experiential approach 110. Who or what is your 'God'? 110. God in daily life 113. God for us 114. Faith and human predicaments 115. God uses earthly means 116. Also the ancestors? 116. II. What God says to us 118. Only Christ 118. Only grace 118. The law (structures 119, exposure of sin 121). The gospel 121. Suffering acceptance 123. The fellowship of believers 124. Only faith 124. Good fruit 126. Traditionalist reactions 127. Righteous yet sinner 128. III. How God speaks to us 128. Only the Scriptures 128. External word 129. Baptism 131. Lord's Supper 131. Ancestral presence 133. Sacred substances? 133. Obsolete sacrifices 135. IV. Public responsibility 136. God's reign on the left and the right 137. Devils, angels and saints 138. Deceased believers belong to Christ 138 but have been taken out of action 139. The risen Christ 141. V. Lutheran deficiencies 141. Individualism 141. Truncated concept of salvation 142. Gospel turned into law 143. Doctrine vs. redemptive response 144. Socio-political impotence 145. Passive Christians 146. Conclusion 147. Summary 148.
Taking stock: Traditionalism and the Christian faith	152

Part II

Modernity – Rejection of authority 161

5. Let us listen to modernity 162

The task 162. I. Emergence of modernity 163. Collapse of Western traditionalism 163. Roots of individualism 166. Diffusion of modernity 167. Resistance to modernity 167. Lure of modernity 168. Socio-economic repercussions 169. II. Sketch of the interaction 170. The 'colonisation of consciousness' 171. Complexity of the interaction 172. (The rationale of traditionalism 173. Security rather than freedom 173. Traditionalist responses 175. The inescapable choice 177). Interests and innovation 178. Traditionalist Christianity 179. The Westernised elites 181. Identity crisis 183. The abrasiveness of modernity 185. III. Handicaps of traditionalism in the modern world 186. Appreciation of traditionalism 186. Dominance of modernity 187. Past and future 188. Authority and performance 190. Solidarity and initiative 191. Sharing and competition 193. Consensus and harnessed conflict 194. Checks against corruption 194. Indirect and direct communication 195. Progeny and life chances 196. Community and society 198. Dynamistic and mechanistic worldview 199. IV. Gender 200. Appreciation of females 202. Female subservience 203. Women in modernising society 204. V. Religious responses to modernity 206. New spiritual formations 207. Mainline churches 207. Summary 209.

6. Let us listen to the global future 212

The task 212. I. Where is modernity leading us? 212. Economic discrepancies 213. Marginalisation 214. Ambition and competition 215. Consumerism 215. Population growth and ecological constraints 216. Modern weaponry 217. Loss of responsibility 218. Loss of the sense of the whole 219. II. Postmodernity 219. Kinds of postmodernity 220. Postmodernity a child of modernity 221. Achievements 222. Traditionalism in a postmodern context 224. III. Dangers of current trends 225. Lack of criteria 228. Indispensable scrutiny 229. Western witchcraft as example 230. Is there no truth? 231. IV. Religious responses to the emerging future 234. Christian traditional authority 234. The paralysis of traditionalism 236. Can we ignore modernity as believers? 237. Can we ignore religion as modern people? 238. Responsibility for the whole 238. Necessity of a dynamic theology 239. The mission of the church 241. Summary 242.

Taking stock: Modernity and the Christian faith 246

7. Let us engage each other 248

The task 248. Finding common ground 249. Liberation of the Christian faith 249. Christian responses to traditionalism 252. Christian responses to modernity 254. The office of the parent 256. Concluding remarks 257.

Bibliography 259

Endnotes 264

Index 305