

*Political Power
in Pre-Colonial Buganda*

Economy, Society & Warfare in the Nineteenth Century

RICHARD J. REID
Asmara University

James Currey
OXFORD

Fountain Publishers
KAMPALA

Ohio University Press
ATHENS

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Maps xi-xiv

One

Introduction 1

The political & territorial kingdom	3
The 'wars of religion' & the establishment of colonial rule	5
The secondary literature	7
The aims & structure of the book	13

Part One 17

Land & Livelihood

A survey of the Ganda economy

Two

Land & Cultivation 19

Introduction	19
The kingdom of the banana	22
Crops & plantations in the nineteenth century	25
The historical & cultural environment	31
'Queer foods' & famine in the nineteenth century	32
Political turmoil & agricultural collapse in the 1880s & 1890s	36

Three

Herdsmen & Hunters 40

Pastoralism in pre-colonial Buganda	40
Herds & herdsmen in politics & society	45
The consumption & utilization of livestock	50
Livestock disease in the late nineteenth century	52
The economics & culture of hunting in pre-colonial Buganda	55

The hunt for ivory	60
Hunters of river & lake: the political economy of fishing	64
The waters of Ganda history	68

Four

Crafts & Craftsmen	70
Barkcloth production	70
The expansion of the barkcloth economy	72
Iron & the state	76
Pre-colonial pottery culture	86

Summary of Part One	89
----------------------------	----

Part Two 93

Labour & Liberty

The state & its human resources

Five

Labour & Taxation	95
Taxation in the nineteenth century	98
Working for the state: the organization of public labour	103
The highways of Buganda	107
Mwanga's reign: an abuse of the system	111

Six

Slavery	113
Acquisition of slaves	116
Women & slavery	119
Slave hierarchies	124

Summary of Part Two	131
----------------------------	-----

Buyers & Sellers

Developments in commerce

Seven

Domestic & Regional Trade	135
Local commerce & commodities	136
Pre-colonial currencies	144

Eight

The Growth of Long-Distance Trade	149
Beginnings	149
Coastal merchants in Buganda	151
Commercial change in the late nineteenth century	160

Summary of Part Three	171
------------------------------	-----

Part Four

War & Peace

Nine

The Rise & Decline of Ganda Military Power	177
Ethos & motivation	179
Military growth before the nineteenth century	185
'Restless warfare': conquest & consolidation under Kamanya	190
Stability & decline in the nineteenth century, 1: the reign of Suna	194
Stability & decline in the nineteenth century, 2: the reign of Mutesa	198

Ten

Developments in Organization, Tactics & Weaponry	206
Structures & hierarchy	206
Structures & tactics	210
The new elite: from bodyguard to vanguard	214
The tools of war: weaponry & the role of firearms	218

Eleven

Lake Victoria, the Final Frontier	227
Canoe construction	228
Naval developments c. 1700–c. 1840	231
The growth of naval power from c. 1840	234
‘The helots of Uganda’: the Sesse & Ganda naval expansion	237
The expansion of ports	240
The organization of the fleet	243

Summary of Part Four	249
-----------------------------	-----

Twelve

Conclusions	251
--------------------	-----

Sources & Bibliography	259
-----------------------------------	-----

Index	267
--------------	-----