

SECURITY
AND ECONOMY IN THE THIRD WORLD

▪

NICOLE BALL

PRINCETON
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

| | |
|-----------------|------|
| LIST OF FIGURES | ix |
| LIST OF TABLES | xi |
| PREFACE | xiii |
| INTRODUCTION | xv |

PART I

Security Expenditure: Theoretical, Empirical, and Methodological Issues

| | |
|--|-----|
| 1. The Military in Development: The Clash between Theory and Fact | 3 |
| 2. The Determinants of Security Expenditure | 32 |
| 3. The Measurement of Security Expenditure | 84 |
| 4. Substituting the Computer for Analysis | 123 |

PART II

Security Expenditure and Development

| | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Security Spending and the Availability of Resources | 161 |
| 6. The Security Sector and the Effective Use of Resources | 212 |
| 7. Capital, Growth, and Security Assistance | 237 |
| 8. Military Manpower and Human Capital Formation | 295 |
| 9. Military-Led Industrialization | 335 |
| 10. The Developmental Role of Security Expenditure | 386 |

APPENDIXES

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Preponderance of Operating Costs in Third World Security Budgets, 1951–1979 | 396 |
| 2. Definitions of Military Expenditure | 403 |

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| 3. Major Empirical Studies of the Growth-Military Expenditure Relationship | 405 |
| 4. Security Forces as a Proportion of Economically Active Population in the Third World, 1980 | 409 |
| 5. Military Occupational Specialties of the South Korean Army | 415 |
| INDEX | 421 |

LIST OF FIGURES

| | |
|---|-------|
| I-1. Third World Military Expenditure, 1963–1983 | xviii |
| I-2. Third World Share in Military Expenditure, 1950–1984 | xix |
| 2-1. Security Expenditure in Morocco, 1975–1980 | 39 |
| 2-2. Growth of Security Expenditure in Chile, 1968–1973, Actual Outlays | 47 |
| 2-3. Growth of Security Expenditure in Nigeria, 1965–1983 | 49 |
| 2-4. Security Expenditure in Ghana, 1958–1978 | 67 |
| 4-1. Defense Burden, Rate of Growth, and Foreign Aid, 44 Third World Countries, 1950–1965 | 142 |
| 5-1. Correlation between Security Expenditure as a Share of GDP and Share of Investment in GDP | 168 |
| 5-2. Peru: Shares of Investment and Security Expenditure in GDP, 1950–1980 | 169 |
| 5-3. Peru: Public and Private Sector Shares in Gross Domestic Investment, 1950–1980 | 171 |
| 5-4. Terms of Trade, Developing Market Economies, 1955–1981 | 178 |
| 5-5. Terms of Trade, South Korea and Brazil, 1961–1981 | 181 |
| 5-6. Morocco: Military Imports as Percentage of Total Imports, 1974–1980 | 197 |
| 7-1. India: Security Expenditure as Percentage of GDP, 1951–1979 | 285 |
| 7-2. Pakistan: Security Expenditure as Percentage of GDP, 1954–1979 | 286 |
| 8-1. Conscript and Volunteer Armed Forces | 308 |
| 9-1. Arms Production Capacity, 34 Developing Countries, Late 1970s | 360 |
| 10-1. Average Share of Military Expenditure in Central Government Expenditure, 99 Developing Countries, 1973–1983 | 387 |

LIST OF TABLES

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1-1. Share of Third World in Global Security Expenditure, According to Regions, 1950–1984 | xx |
| 2-1. Security Expenditure of Selected South American Countries, Actual Outlays, 1950–1980 | 35 |
| 2-2. Growth of Regional Shares in Global Security Expenditure, 1950–1984 | 35 |
| 2-3. Growth of Public Expenditure, Security Spending, and Gross National Product in Chile, 1973–1979 | 53 |
| 3-1. Comparison of USAID/ACDA, IMF, and Guyanese Security Expenditure Data, 1967–1979 | 93 |
| 3-2. Comparison of IMF and Sri Lankan Security Expenditure Data, 1975–1983 | 96 |
| 3-3. Countries Participating in UN Military Expenditure Reporting Exercises, 1980–1985 | 99 |
| 3-4. Amount and Type of Information on Security Expenditures Reported to United Nations, 1981 | 100 |
| 3-5. Major Third World Arms Importers, 1973–1983 | 110 |
| 4-1. Gross Domestic Investment and Security Expenditure, 1955–1977 | 150 |
| 5-1. Third World Balance of Payments | 176 |
| 5-2. Export Commodity Dependence, 1981 | 179 |
| 5-3. Debt Service on Long- and Short-Term External Debt, 1977–1984 | 182 |
| 5-4. Peru: Classification of Imports | 188 |
| 5-5. Oil Imports and Security-Related Capital Expenditure as Percent Imports (c.i.f.), 1960–1980 | 190 |
| 5-6. Peru: Public Foreign Debt According to Use, 1968–1980 | 202 |
| 6-1. China: Structure of Economy, 1949–1976 | 223 |
| 7-1. Net Official Development Assistance Disbursed by Major Western Donors to Developing Countries and Multilateral Agencies, 1956–1982 | 248 |

LIST OF TABLES

| | |
|---|-----|
| 7-2. U.S. Security-Related Economic Aid, 1953–1961, Selected Countries and Regions, Authorized Expenditure | 250 |
| 7-3. Soviet, Eastern European, and Chinese Economic Credits and Grants to Non-Comecon Developing Countries, 1954–1981 | 255 |
| 7-4. Tied Aid, Major OECD Donors, 1982–1983 | 262 |
| 7-5. Philippines: Domestic Security Expenditure and U.S. Military Assistance Grants, 1951–1976 | 284 |
| 8-1. School Enrollment, Selected Third World Countries, 1960 | 296 |
| 8-2. Occupations Held by Enlisted Servicemen and Civilian Males in the United States, 1960 | 305 |
| 8-3. Security Forces as Percentage of Males in 15–44 and 15–64 Year Age Groups, 1980 | 309 |
| 8-4. Distribution of Servicemen in South Korean Army According to Military Occupational Areas, 1968 | 314 |
| 8-5. Technically Skilled Manpower Released from South Korean Armed Forces by Service | 315 |
| 9-1. Industry and Manufacturing Subsector as Percentage of GDP, Income Groups, 1960–1982 | 341 |
| 9-2. Industry and Manufacturing Subsector as Percentage of GDP, Thirty-two Developing Countries, 1960–1982 | 342 |
| 9-3. Labor Force by Sector, Thirty-two Developing Countries, 1960 and 1980 | 346 |
| 9-4. Third World Producers of Major Weapons, 1950–1984 | 359 |
| 9-5. Share of Industrial Labor Force Employed in Arms Industry, early 1980s | 367 |