

■ United States Holocaust Memorial Museum
Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel
Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies

Documenting Life and Destruction
Holocaust Sources in Context

SERIES EDITOR

JÜRGEN MATTHÄUS

CONTENTS

List of Maps	xvii
Abbreviations	xix
Introduction	1
Part I: 1933–1938	9
DOCUMENT 1-1: Editorial in Jüdische Rundschau (Berlin), “Inner Security,” on German Zionists’ assessment of the Nazi takeover, February 3, 1933.	9
DOCUMENT 1-2: Press release by CV, Berlin, on reports of anti-Jewish acts in Germany, March 24, 1933, CV-Zeitung , March 30, 1933.	10
DOCUMENT 1-3: Diary entry by Mally Dienemann, Offenbach, Germany, for April 3, 1933, on the nationwide boycott of Jewish businesses.	11
DOCUMENT 1-4: Photograph of Beate Berger and youth from the Beith Ahawah Children’s Home on an excursion near Berlin, 1934.	12
DOCUMENT 1-5: Account by Max Abraham, Czechoslovakia, on his experiences in the Oranienburg concentration camp.	12
DOCUMENT 1-6: Letter by League of Jewish Women, Berlin, to the Reich leader of the Nazi Women’s League on the future of Jewish children in Germany, November 8, 1934.	14
	vii

DOCUMENT 1-7: Note by Max Rosenthal on the bar mitzvah of his grandson, Hans Rosenthal, April 13, 1935.	15
DOCUMENT 1-8: Letter by Julius Moses, Berlin, to Erwin Moses, Tel Aviv, on his visions for the family's future, September 1935.	16
DOCUMENT 1-9: Report by Bernhard Kahn, AJJDC, European Executive Council, Geneva, titled "Jewish Conditions in Germany," November 29, 1935.	18
DOCUMENT 1-10: Photograph of students from different Jewish schools in Berlin gathering around their banners for a sports competition, no date (1936–1938).	20
DOCUMENT 1-11: Philipp Flesch, New York, "My Life in Germany before and after January 30, 1933," on the "Anschluss" of Austria in early 1938.	21
DOCUMENT 1-12: Report from files of the Jewish Telegraph Agency, Paris, by an unidentified author on the persecution of Jews in central European countries in the first half of June 1938.	22
DOCUMENT 1-13: Diary entry by Ruth Maier, Vienna, for October 2, 1938, on her Jewish identity.	24
DOCUMENT 1-14: Letter by Gerhard Kann, Berlin, to Heinz Kellermann, New York, on the spiritual impact of persecution, October 24, 1938.	25
DOCUMENT 1-15: Letter by Emanuel Ringelblum, Środoborów, Poland, to Raphael Mahler, New York, December 6, 1938, on the fate of Jewish expellees in the Polish-German border region.	27
DOCUMENT 1-16: Ovadia Camhy, "Under the Sign of Satan," on pogrom violence in Germany, Le Judaïsme séphardi (Paris), December 1938.	29
DOCUMENT 1-17: Speech by Léon Blum, Paris, delivered at the banquet dinner at the ninth annual meeting of the International League against Antisemitism, November 26, 1938.	30
DOCUMENT 1-18: Account by Max Eschelbacher, England, on his imprisonment following " Kristallnacht ," written in spring/early summer 1939.	33

DOCUMENT 1-19: Letter by Georg Landauer, Jerusalem, to Henry Montor, New York, on the mood among German Jews, December 2, 1938.	34
DOCUMENT 1-20: Letter by Leon Gattegno, Salonika, Greece, to the WJC Paris, June 7, 1939, on the plight of Jews on refugee ships.	35
Part II: 1939–1940	37
DOCUMENT 2-1: Testimony by an unidentified woman from Lipno, Poland, on the first days of war, recorded ca. 1940 in the Warsaw ghetto.	37
DOCUMENT 2-2: Shimon Huberband, Warsaw, "The Destruction of Synagogues, Study Halls, and Cemeteries," no date (ca. 1941).	39
DOCUMENT 2-3: "Nazis Establish More Ghettos in Poland," Canadian Jewish Chronicle (Montreal), January 12, 1940.	41
DOCUMENT 2-4: S. Moldawer, "The Road to Lublin," on his deportation from Hamburg in October 1939, Contemporary Jewish Record (New York) 3 (March–April 1940).	42
DOCUMENT 2-5: Photograph of Warsaw Jews, wearing armbands, selling their possessions out of suitcases in a makeshift market on a bombed-out street, December 1939.	44
DOCUMENT 2-6: Letter by Jenny Marx, Mannheim, Germany, to Max Marx and family, Jerusalem, on her daily struggles, January 14, 1940.	44
DOCUMENT 2-7: Account by an unidentified woman on the German/Soviet occupation of Zamość, no date (ca. 1941).	46
DOCUMENT 2-8: Letter by Moshe Kleinbaum, Geneva, to Nahum Goldmann, New York, on the situation in Soviet-occupied Poland, March 12, 1940.	47
DOCUMENT 2-9: Photograph of Willem Friedman, a soldier in the Belgian army, posing next to a piece of artillery, winter 1939–1940.	48
DOCUMENT 2-10: Eugen Tillinger, "The Bridge of Hendaye: Eyewitness Account of the Mass Flight to Spain," Aufbau (New York), August 30, 1940.	48

DOCUMENT 2-11: Letter by an unidentified Jewish correspondent in Casablanca, French-administered Morocco, on local conditions, August 28, 1940.	50
DOCUMENT 2-12: Report by AJJDC Warsaw about its relief work during the period September 1939–October 1940.	52
DOCUMENT 2-13: Kalman Huberband, Warsaw, “The ‘March’ into the Mikveh ,” October 1940.	54
DOCUMENT 2-14: Letter by Wilhelm Filderman and Isac Brucăr, Bucharest, to Ion Antonescu, Romanian prime minister, September 30, 1940.	56
DOCUMENT 2-15: Diary entry by an unidentified man, Łódź, Warthegau, on the struggle for bread in the ghetto, December 15, 1940.	57
Part III: 1941–1942	61
DOCUMENT 3-1: Account by an unidentified person, Warsaw, on the eve of Passover in the ghetto, April 11, 1941.	61
DOCUMENT 3-2: Diary entry by Hermann Hakel, camp Alberobello near Bari, Italy, for May 20, 1941, on a visit by Catholic dignitaries.	64
DOCUMENT 3-3: “One Year Sosúa Settlement,” on Jewish emigration to the Dominican Republic, Jüdisches Nachrichtenblatt (Prague), May 2, 1941.	65
DOCUMENT 3-4: Leib Spiesman, “In the Warsaw Ghetto,” Contemporary Jewish Record (New York) 4 (August 1941): 357–66.	66
DOCUMENT 3-5: Letters by Ruth Goldbarth, Warsaw, to Edith Blau, Minden, Germany, on life in the ghetto during the first half of 1941.	69
DOCUMENT 3-6: Diary entry by Aron Pik, Shavli, German-occupied Lithuania, for June 27, 1941, on the dangers facing Jews around the start of the German attack on the Soviet Union.	73
DOCUMENT 3-7: Account by ghetto policemen in Kovno, German-occupied Lithuania, on the establishment of the Jewish police in the summer of 1941, no date (early 1943).	75

- DOCUMENT 3-8: Diary entries by Baruch Milch, Tluste, Galicia district, Generalgouvernement, written July–August 1943, on the persecution of Hungarian deportees in the second half of 1941. 77
- DOCUMENT 3-9: Photograph of Jews led to their execution in Kamyanets-Podilsky, German-occupied Ukraine, secretly taken by Gyula Spitz, August 27, 1941. 80
- DOCUMENT 3-10: Letters by Motl (Matvei Aronovich) Talalaevskii, Kyiv, Soviet Union, to his wife, September 2 and 5, 1941, on his Red Army service. 80
- DOCUMENT 3-11: Diary entry by an unidentified woman from Vienna on her deportation to Kovno, November 19–28, 1941. 83
- DOCUMENT 3-12: Lyrics by Khane Khaytin, Shavli, German-occupied Lithuania, for “On a Begging Walk,” no date (1942). 84
- DOCUMENT 3-13: Manifesto calling for resistance in the Vilna ghetto, January 1, 1942. 85
- DOCUMENT 3-14: Diary entries by Eva Mändl, Prague, for October–December 1941, on her impending deportation to Terezin. 86
- DOCUMENT 3-15: Drawing by Karel Fleischmann, Theresienstadt, Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia, Infirmary for Children, 1942. 88
- DOCUMENT 3-16: Diary entry by Nekhama Vaisman, Romanian-occupied Transnistria, for January 27, 1942, on life in an unidentified ghetto. 89
- DOCUMENT 3-17: Manuscript fragment by Đura Rajs, Petrovgrad, German-occupied Yugoslav Banat, on his camp experiences, August 11, 1941. 90
- DOCUMENT 3-18: Letters by Hilda Dajč, Zemun near Belgrade, to Mirjana Petrović, Belgrade, on conditions in the Judenlager Semlin, December 9, 1941, and early 1942. 92
- DOCUMENT 3-19: Uszer Taube, “Protocol about the Events in the Kolo Region,” on the mass murder of Jews in Chełmno, Warthegau, no date (after January 1942). 95
- DOCUMENT 3-20: Letter by Selig Brodetsky and Leonard Stein, Joint Foreign Committee, to Władysław Sikorski, prime minister of the

Polish government-in-exile, London, drawing attention to the plight of Jews, January 12, 1942.	101
DOCUMENT 3-21: Diary entries by Abraham Frieder, Nové Mesto, Slovakia, for February 1942, on Jewish efforts to stop deportations to Poland.	102
DOCUMENT 3-22: Photographs and captions from Abraham Frieder's diary taken at the deportation camp in Žilina, Slovakia, no date (spring of 1942).	105
DOCUMENT 3-23: Abraham Lewin, "In One Half Hour," on the spreading of news about murder actions in German-controlled Poland, Warsaw, March 26, 1942.	107
DOCUMENT 3-24: Letter by Ernst Krombach, Izbica, Lublin district, Generalgouvernement, to Marianne Strauss, Essen, Germany, on the limits of communicating conditions in "the east," April 28, 1942.	109
DOCUMENT 3-25: Diary entries by Irene Hauser, Łódź, Warthegau, for June–July 1942, on conditions in the ghetto.	111
DOCUMENT 3-26: Diary entry by Mirjam Korber, Djurin, Romanian-occupied Transnistria, for July 4, 1942.	112
DOCUMENT 3-27: "To the Wide Jewish Masses," Undzer vort (Paris), on mass roundups in Paris, September 1942.	113
DOCUMENT 3-28: Drawings by "A. R.," an unidentified prisoner in the Westerbork camp, November 1942.	116
DOCUMENT 3-29: Diary entries by Moshe Flinker, Brussels, for November 24 and 26, 1942, on religion and events since mid-1940.	117
DOCUMENT 3-30: Photograph by Felix Nussbaum of his painting Saint-Cyprien on the balcony of his apartment in Brussels, no date (June 1942).	120
DOCUMENT 3-31: Account by an unidentified Oyneg Shabes activist on a conversation with David Briner regarding his efforts to survive by looting in the Warsaw ghetto, December 1942.	121
DOCUMENT 3-32: Manifesto by Solomon Mikhoels and Shakhno Epshtein, Kuybyshev, USSR, "To the Jews of the Entire World," December 21, 1942.	123

Part IV: 1943–1944	125
DOCUMENT 4-1: Correspondence between Jacob Katzenstein, Hamburg, and Michael Chaim Gescheit, Berlin, on ritual fasting, February 1943.	125
DOCUMENT 4-2: Account by Abram Jakub Krzepicki, Warsaw, of the Treblinka death camp, recorded by Rachel Auerbach under the title "A Fugitive from Treblinka," December 1942–January 1943.	127
DOCUMENT 4-3: Adolf Berman, Warsaw, "The Problem of Resistance," January 17, 1943.	130
DOCUMENT 4-4: Testimony by Leyb Rayzer, Łódź, Poland, to the Jewish Historical Commission on resistance in the Grodno region, 1945.	135
DOCUMENT 4-5: Diary entries by an unidentified person, Warsaw, on the ghetto uprising, April–May 1943.	138
DOCUMENT 4-6: Diary entry by Aryeh Klonicki, near Buczacz, Galicia district, Generalgouvernement, July 5, 1943, on life in hiding.	143
DOCUMENT 4-7: Letter by Menahem Glitsenshteyn, Jizzakh, Uzbekistan, USSR, to Yerahmiel and Gitele Glitsenshteyn, Ushtobe, Kazakhstan, USSR, on his experience as a refugee in Soviet Asia, June 12, 1943.	147
DOCUMENT 4-8: Testimonial letter by Elkhanan Elkes, Kovno, German-occupied Lithuania, to Joel and Sara Elkes, England, October 19, 1943.	149
DOCUMENT 4-9: Account by Leib Langfuss, "The Horrors of Murder," about the Sonderkommando at Auschwitz II–Birkenau, 1943–1944.	154
DOCUMENT 4-10: Letter by Zivia Lubetkin and Yitzhak Zuckerman, hiding on the "Aryan side" of Warsaw, to members in the Hashomer Hatzair movement in Slovakia, January 6, 1944.	157
DOCUMENT 4-11: "First Anniversary of the 'Tragedy,'" commemorating the deportation of Jews from Salonika, Greece, La Vara (New York), March 10, 1944.	158
DOCUMENT 4-12: Letter by Ede Buzás, Óbecse, Hungarian-occupied Yugoslavia, to a Calvinist bishop in Budapest on his Christian identity, April 28, 1944.	162

DOCUMENT 4-13: Letter by Rezső Kemény, Pestszenterzsébet, Hungary, to an unidentified friend on his impending deportation, June 2, 1944.	164
DOCUMENT 4-14: Postcard by Pál Justus, Bor, German-occupied Yugoslavia, to his wife, Edit, Budapest, on his life in a Hungarian forced-labor battalion, July 9, 1944.	166
DOCUMENT 4-15: Diary entries by Selma Wijnberg, Chełm, Poland, July and August 1944, on her life after hiding.	167
DOCUMENT 4-16: Letter by the Pressel family, Lyon, France, to Elie Schwerner, New York, on their wartime fate, September 28, 1944.	169
Part V: 1945–1946	173
DOCUMENT 5-1: Account by Meilach Lubocki, Landsberg, Germany, on the liquidation of Estonian labor camps in the summer of 1944, September 20, 1945.	173
DOCUMENT 5-2: Account by Michal Kraus on the death march from Auschwitz II-Birkenau in January 1945, written 1946–1947.	179
DOCUMENT 5-3: Letter by Irving P. Eisner to his father on his visit to Buchenwald, May 15, 1945.	180
DOCUMENT 5-4: Letter by Julius Lewy, Linz, Austria, to his liberators on his persistent ill health, May 30, 1945.	182
DOCUMENT 5-5: Diary entry by Dora Apsan, Schildberg, Germany, for May 12, 1945, reflecting on the fate of her family.	184
DOCUMENT 5-6: Transcript of a voice-recorded interview with Polia Bisenhaus, conducted by David P. Boder, ORT School Paris, on her experiences in the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp and postwar plans, Paris, July 29, 1946.	186
DOCUMENT 5-7: Account by Maria Gara, May 21, 1945, on her rescue work in Hungary and subsequent deportation.	192
DOCUMENT 5-8: Report by Arthur Gold, Montreux, Switzerland, to Gerhart Riegner, WJC Geneva, on the care of Jewish orphans, July 1945.	195

DOCUMENT 5-9: Diary entry by Rachela (Rachel) Bryk, Bergen-Belsen, Germany, for September 22, 1945, on a day in the DP camp.	198
DOCUMENT 5-10: Letter by Max Schweitzer, Brăila, Romania, to his sister, Esther Williams, Cleveland, Ohio, on his family's wartime fate in Transnistria, April 10, 1945.	200
DOCUMENT 5-11: Report by Judah Nadich, advisor to the US Army theater commander on Jewish activities, October 22, 1945, on conditions in assembly centers for Jewish displaced persons.	201
DOCUMENT 5-12: Dr. Zalman Grinberg, "Nürnberg," on Allied trials and postwar justice, Undzer veg (Munich, Germany), November 20, 1945.	206
DOCUMENT 5-13: Editorial in Unzer Sztyme: Organ of the Sharith Hapletah in the British Zone (Bergen-Belsen, Germany), on disappointments since liberation, January 1, 1946.	208
DOCUMENT 5-14: Certificate of widowhood issued by the Central Bureau of Orthodox Communities in Budapest to Golda Leitman Weiss, May 14, 1946.	210
DOCUMENT 5-15: Report by Becky Althoff, Föhrenwald, Germany, June 7, 1946, on her assessment of child survivors in the DP camp.	211
DOCUMENT 5-16: Moyshe Feygnboym, "Why Do We Need a Historical Commission?," Fun letstn khurbn (Munich, Germany), August 1946.	214
DOCUMENT 5-17: Testimony by Asher Zisman, Munich, Germany, on German war crimes in Brest, Belarus, April 3, 1946.	216
DOCUMENT 5-18: Extracts from the file of Chaim Chajet, Warsaw, on accusations of wartime collaboration, September–December 1946.	219
DOCUMENT 5-19: "Spoils, Restitution, Reintegration," Bulletin du Centre Israélite d'Information (Paris), December 1, 1946.	222
DOCUMENT 5-20: Selection from the memorial book for Jewish victims in Tunisia, 1946.	224
DOCUMENT 5-21: Lyrics by Samson Först, Der Grager. Gesriben in Lager (Bucharest, 1947), for the Purim holiday.	227
DOCUMENT 5-22: Letter by Rachel Nordheim, near Leiden, the Netherlands, to her children in the Kfar Hassidim settlement, Palestine, December 19, 1946.	231

DOCUMENT 5-23: Jacob Pat, Ashes and Fire (New York: International Universities Press, 1947), 248–54, on the Jewish past and future in Poland.	232
List of Documents	235
Chronology	251
Index	293
About the Editors	305