

AFRICANA RESOURCES AND COLLECTIONS

Three Decades
of Development and Achievement

*A Festschrift
in Honor
of Hans Panofsky*

edited by

JULIAN W. WITHERELL

The Scarecrow Press, Inc.
Metuchen, N.J., & London
1989

CONTENTS

Editor's Note	v
1. Hans Panofsky: A Personal Reminiscence Abraham Demoz	1
2. Hans Panofsky: Biographical Notes and Bibliography Moore Crossey	9
3. The Archives-Libraries Committee and the Cooperative Africana Microform Project: A Brief History David L. Easterbrook	18
4. Recent Developments in Africana Cataloging in the United States (1973-1988) Elizabeth A. Widenmann	39
5. Africana Acquisitions at the Library of Congress Beverly A. Gray	62
6. African Language Materials: Challenges and Responsibilities in Collection Management Gretchen Walsh	77
7. Creating a Standard List Online of Books on African Studies for Undergraduate Libraries and Keeping It Up-to-Date John Bruce Howell	108
8. Documenting African Material Culture Janet L. Stanley	118

9. Visualizing Africa: The Bibliography of Films by Sub-Saharan African Filmmakers Nancy J. Schmidt	151
10. Geography of African Studies: Regional and National Emphases in Dissertation and Other Research Joseph J. Lauer	178
11. The Half Life of African Archives David Henige	198
12. Bibliographical Explorers of Africa Yvette Scheven	213
13. "Pathos, Mirth, Murder, and Sweet Abandon": The Early Life and Times of Drum Dorothy C. Woodson	228
Index	247