

UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

POVERTY
ERADICATION
WHERE STANDS AFRICA ?

Mbaya KANKWENDA
Luc-Joël GREGOIRE
Hugues LEGROS
Harouna OUÉDRAOGO

 ECONOMICA

London • Paris • Genève

Contents

The authors	IV
Foreword	V
Acknowledgements	VII
Introduction	1

PART ONE

Analysis and assessment of poverty in sub-saharan africa

CHAPITRE 1 – The poverty phenomenon in Sub-Saharan Africa	7
1. The general problem of poverty in Sub-Saharan Africa	7
2. General characteristics of poverty and poverty reduction in Sub-Saharan Africa	11
2.1. Economic policies and poverty reduction.....	11
2.1.1. Economic performance and growth profiles.....	11
2.1.2. Savings and investment	14
2.1.3. Access to markets and agricultural development	16
2.1.4. Participation of women in development processes	18
2.1.5. Globalization, regionalization and poverty reduction...	24
2.1.6. Development financing and assistance for the poorest countries.....	28
2.2. Demographic and social issues: population growth, employment, education and health, particularly AIDS.....	32
2.2.1. Population growth and falling living standards	32
2.2.2. Employment	34
2.2.3. Education and adult literacy	38
2.2.4. Availability and accessibility of health care: a crucial issue for Africa.....	41

2.3. Political and institutional issues related to poverty eradication	44
2.4. Food security	48
2.5. Access to natural resources and sustainable management of the environment	50
Conclusion.....	52
CHAPITRE 2 – Definitions, measures and a comprehensive approach to poverty in Sub-Saharan Africa.....	57
1. Definitions of poverty.....	57
1.1. Current vision of poverty.....	57
1.2. Definitions of poverty.....	59
1.2.1. Well-being and poverty	60
1.2.2. Income or consumption perspective	60
1.2.3. Basic needs perspective	61
1.2.4. Social exclusion	62
1.2.5. UNDP's definition of human poverty	62
2. Identifying and measuring poverty: poverty profiles.....	65
2.1. From data collection to a poverty profile and an analysis of poverty	65
2.2. Objectives and stages of a poverty profile.....	67
2.3. Calculation of a poverty line	67
2.3.1. Objectives of a poverty line	67
2.3.2. Role of quantitative surveys in the calculation of poverty lines	68
2.3.3. Setting a poverty line.....	70
2.3.4. Main results of poverty lines.....	76
2.4. Qualitative appraisals of poverty	82
2.4.1. Objectives of qualitative or participatory appraisals	82
2.4.2. Contribution of qualitative surveys to the construction of poverty profiles.....	83
2.5. Construction of a poverty profile.....	88
2.5.1. Stages in the construction of a poverty profile	88
2.5.2. Determining the main characteristics of poverty: choice and analysis of socioeconomic indicators	89
3. A comprehensive approach to poverty.....	92
3.1. Introduction	92
3.2. A comprehensive approach to understanding poverty	93
3.3. Analysis of national policy from the angle of poverty reduction	93
3.3.1. Objectives	93
3.3.2. Macroeconomic framework and poverty.....	95
3.3.3. Analysis of national policy from the angle of poverty reduction.....	96

3.3.4. Analysis of public expenditure, through public spending reviews and the 20/20 Initiative.....	97
3.3.5. Analysis of the institutional framework for policy implementation	99
3.3.6. Strengthening the capacities of the poor	101
3.3.7. Impact of the international environment on the living standards of poor households.....	102
3.4. Identifying the causes of poverty.....	103
3.4.1. Inequitable distribution of factors of production	103
3.4.2. Deficiencies in governance and empowerment	106
3.4.3. Inequalities in development opportunities.....	108
3.5. Towards a comprehensive understanding of poverty.....	110

* PART TWO

National poverty reduction strategies

✓ CHAPITRE 3 – Macroeconomic policy, institutional reform and social mobilization favorable to poverty reduction	117
1. Structural reform, strategic planning and long-term visions of poverty reduction.....	118
1.1. Structural adjustment programs and poverty reduction.....	118
1.2. Strategic planning and long-term visions of poverty reduction	123
2. Macroeconomic policy and poverty reduction.....	130
2.1. Macroeconomic policies favorable to poverty reduction.....	131
2.2. Social Dimensions of Adjustment	134
2.3. SAPs and the social sectors.....	135
2.4. Public spending policies.....	136
2.4.1. Restructuring of public spending during adjustment ...	136
2.4.2. Allocation of public resources to social services.....	142
2.4.3. 20/20 Initiative: a framework for raising financial resources and a mechanism for monitoring poverty reduction efforts	150
2.4.4. Conclusions and recommendations	164
2.5. Tax, monetary and exchange-rate policies	165
2.6. Employment policies and poverty reduction	171
2.7. International development cooperation policies	180
2.7.1. Debt relief and poverty reduction	180
2.7.2. Domestic financing	180
2.7.3. External assistance and poverty reduction	181
3. Institutional reform and social mobilization favorable to poverty reduction	184

3.1. Role of the State	184
3.2. Role of the private sector	192
3.3. Role of civil society	194
3.3.1. Non-governmental organizations.....	194
3.3.2. Community structures and organizations	196
3.3.3. Governance, empowerment and poverty reduction.....	197
CHAPITRE 4 – Poor people’s access to productive resources and basic social services	201
1. Access to natural resources	202
1.1. Poor people’s access to land	202
1.2. Poor people’s access to domestic energy and wood.....	204
1.3. Poor people’s access to water.....	206
1.4. Poor people’s access to technology, research results and extension services	208
2. Access to productive capital, employment and financial services....	210
2.1. Strategies that improve poor people’s access to productive capital and employment.....	210
2.1.1. Incentive measures that improve access to markets	210
2.1.2. Incentive measures for job creation.....	212
2.2. Measures facilitating poor people’s access to financial capital .	221
3. Food security, environmental protection and poverty reduction....	233
3.1. Rural development and food security.....	233
3.2. Environment and poverty reduction	237
4. Availability and accessibility of basic social services	239
4.1. Availability and accessibility of basic education	243
4.2. Availability and accessibility of basic health care	251
4.3. General policies favoring access to basic social services	259
5. Conclusions and recommendations.....	264
CHAPITRE 5 – Designing a poverty reduction strategy.....	267
1. Towards a participatory, national process.....	267
2. Operational framework for the strategy.....	271
3. Formulation and implementation of poverty reduction strategy....	278
3.1. General strategy for Sub-Saharan African countries.....	278
3.2. Specific strategies for countries in crisis.....	288

PART THREE

External mobilization for poverty reduction in Africa

CHAPITRE 6 – Role of donors in poverty reduction action	293
1. Introduction: international awareness of the poverty problem.....	293

2. Official development assistance for poverty reduction in Sub-Saharan Africa	297
3. Donor policies with regard to poverty	301
3.1. Poverty reduction and economic growth.....	308
3.2. Poverty reduction and fulfilment of basic needs.....	311
3.3. Poverty reduction from the standpoint of sustainable human development	314
4. Thematic and sectoral approaches to poverty reduction	318
4.1. Research on poverty.....	319
4.2. Social dimensions of structural adjustment and debt relief	319
4.2.1. Social dimensions of structural adjustment	320
4.2.2. Debt relief initiatives	320
4.3. Institutional support, good governance and the participatory approach.....	323
4.4. Access to productive resources and factors of production	326
4.5. Availability and accessibility of social services and the 20/20 Initiative	327
4.6. Food security and the environment.....	329
5. Conclusions	329
CHAPITRE 7 – UNDP support for national poverty reduction strategies	333
1. Role and characteristics of UNDP assistance for poverty reduction	333
1.1. Mandate from the World Summit for Social Development ...	333
1.2. UNDP's comparative advantages.....	334
1.3. Sustainable human development and priority themes for poverty reduction.....	340
1.3.1. Sustainable employment and livelihoods	340
1.3.2. Advancement of women	341
1.3.3. Environmental conservation and regeneration	342
1.3.4. Governance and capacity-building.....	343
2. Approaches, programs and achievements	344
2.1. Regional cooperation with Africa.....	344
2.1.1. Regional Cooperation Framework for Africa (1997-2001).....	344
2.1.2. Strategy and means of execution of UNDP regional programs	345
2.2. Country operations and achievements in the 1990s	359
3. Management, monitoring and evaluation procedures.....	372
4. Financing poverty reduction	373
5. Conclusion and prospects	375

ANNEXES

ANNEXE 1 – Poverty profiles	383
1. Absolute and relative poverty	383
1.1. Absolute poverty	383
1.2. Relative poverty	384
2. Different types of absolute poverty line	384
3. Poverty indicators	385
3.1. Poverty rate or incidence of poverty	385
3.2. Depth of poverty	386
3.3. Severity of poverty	386
3.4. Transient or temporary poverty, and chronic poverty	386
3.5. Vulnerability	386
4. Surveys used to construct poverty profiles	387
4.1. Quantitative surveys	387
4.2. Qualitative surveys	389
4.3. Hybrid methods	391
5. Socioeconomic indicators	392
5.1. Household income and consumption	392
5.2. Availability and accessibility of essential social services	394
5.3. Environment and natural resources	397
5.4. Gender indicators	398
5.5. Measuring and analyzing human development	398
ANNEXE 2 – Poverty and the human development indices	399
1. Human Development Dimensions	399
2. What Does the HPI-1 reveal?	399
3. The human poverty index	401
3.1. Computing the human poverty index for developing countries	401
3.2. Computing the human poverty index for industrialized countries	402
ANNEXE 3 – Bibliography	403
ANNEXE 4 – Definitions of statistical terms	423
ANNEXE 5 – Box tables	427
ANNEXE 6 – Tables	431
ANNEXE 7 – Figures	433
ANNEXE 8 – Abbreviations	435