

CHURCH AND REFORM

BISHOPS, THEOLOGIANS, AND CANON LAWYERS
IN THE THOUGHT OF PIERRE D'AILLY (1351-1420)

BY

LOUIS B. PASCOE, S.J.

BRILL
LEIDEN · BOSTON
2005

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction.....	1
Chapter One. Church and Reform: The Apocalyptic Context	11
1. Church History as Series of Persecutions	12
2. Schism, Antichrist, Knowledge of Arrival	28
3. Antichrist and Post-Apostolic Prophetic Revelation	37
4. Reform: The Gospel and the Apostolic Ideal	44
Chapter Two. Bishops: Status, Office, Authority.....	53
1. Prelates: Terminology, Evolution, Categories.....	53
2. Status: Apostolic Succession	55
3. Apostolic Mission and Authority.....	69
Chapter Three. Bishops: Pastoral Reform, and the Apostolic Life	93
1. Dimensions of Reform Program	93
2. Pastoral Reform and the Apostolic Ideal	95
3. Specific Areas of Pastoral Reform.....	102
Chapter Four. Bishops: Personal Reform, and the Apostolic Life ..	137
1. Personal Reform: Nature and Goals	137
2. Specific Aspects of Personal Reform	140
3. Episcopal Models of the Apostolic Life	157
Chapter Five. Theologians: Status, Office, Authority.....	165
1. Status: Order, Hierarchy and Corporation	165
2. Office: Apostolic Mission: Teaching and Preaching	181
3. Authority: Corporate and Individual	192

Chapter Six. Theologians: Theology, Science, Method	207
1. The Question of Influences	207
2. Theology: Definition, Unity, and Subject.....	208
3. The Scientific Status of Theology.....	216
4. Method: Theological Discourse and Apologetics	225
Chapter Seven. Canon Lawyers: Law, Critique, Authority.....	235
1. Attitude towards Canon Lawyers	237
2. Law: Nature, Varieties, Relationships	241
3. Canon Law: Characteristics and Relationships	250
4. Relationship of Canon Law to Theology	257
Conclusion	277
Bibliography	289
Index of Subjects and Terms.....	311
Index of Persons and Places.....	319
Index of Modern Scholars	323