

THE LIFE, THOUGHT, AND LEGACY OF CAPE VERDE'S FREEDOM FIGHTER
AMILCAR CABRAL (1924-1973)
Essays on His Liberation Philosophy

Edited by John Fobanjong and
Thomas Ranuga

The Edwin Mellen Press
Lewiston•Queenston•Lampeter

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface by Thomas Ranuga	i
Foreword by Veronique Helenon.....	v
Introduction by John Fobanjong.....	1
Epistemological Underpinnings of Liberation Philosophy.....	1
Liberation Theology.....	4
II Amilcar Cabral and the Power of Knowledge by Amilcar S. Lopes	9
Compliments.....	9
Introduction.....	9
Cabral and his Trajectory.....	10
The Cultural Resistance	13
The Weapon of Theory or the Power of Knowledge.....	14
The Challenge for Today	15
III Amilcar Cabral and the Practice of Theory by Tsenay Serequeberhan	17
IV Amilcar Cabral: Uniting Theory and Practice by Richard Lobban	29
National Liberation and Culture, (Cabral, 1973:43).....	33
V Cabral Legacies: Meeting the Challenges of the 21 st Century by Sylvia Hill ..	39
The Necessity for Theory.....	40
The Concept of National Liberation Struggle.....	41
International Solidarity	43
Paying Attention to Practice	44

VI Culture and process in the Thoughts of Amilcar Cabral by Deirdre Meintel..51
Introduction.....	51
Cabo Verde Under the « New State ».....	52
The Late Colonial Social System.....	53
Beyond Cape Verde and Guinea-Bissau.....	58
Cabral's Universalism	60
VII The Women of Guinea Bissau and Cape Verde in the Struggle for
National Independence by Crispina Gomes.....	69
Brief Historical Overview of Amilcar Cabral's Struggle for National Independence	69
Significance of the Struggle for Independence.....	72
The Condition of Women in Guinea and Cape Verde.....	74
Bibliography	78
VIII Re-Visiting the Theories and Practices of Amilcar Cabral in the Context of the Exhaustion of the Patriarchal model of African Liberation by
Horace Campbell	79
The Writings of Cabral in Relation to Gender and Liberation Theory.....	88
Cabral's Confrontation with Assimilation Thinking.....	90
Cabral the Mobilizer, Theoretician and Diplomat	94
CONCP as a Practical Example of Cooperation Among Liberation
Movements.....	95
Cabral in the Context of the Lessons of Pan Africanism and
Internationalism	97
Pan Africanism and Cultural Renewal.....	100
Conclusion	101

IX Heroes, Ghosts and Politicians: Amílcar Cabral and the Democratic Transition in Cape Verde by Joao M. Monteiro	103
X The Regional Context of the Liberation Struggle in Lusophone Africa
by John Fobanjong.....	121
Introduction.....	121
Cross-Referencing the Liberation Movements	121
Biographical Anthology of Leaders of the Liberation Movements	124
Samora Machel: Mozambique's First President.....	126
Agostinho Neto: Angola's First President.....	127
Contrasting the Philosophical Approaches of
Amílcar Cabral's Contemporaries	128
Governance in Pre-Colonial Angola.....	136
The Colonial Origins of Underdevelopment in Angola.....	138
Growth of Secondary Education in Angola, 1954-1961.....	142
Conclusion	143
XI Articulating Cabral's Regionalist and Pan-Africanist Vision in the Age of Globalization by John Fobanjong	149
Lessons and Strategies for Cape Verde	162
Conclusion	166
XII APPENDIX	169
Keynote Address by the President of Cape Verde,
Aristides Pereira (1975-1990).....	169
Index	181