

Consensus, Conflict and Change

A Sociological Introduction to African Societies

Margaret Peil
Olatunji Oyeneye

EAST AFRICAN EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHERS

Nairobi Kampala Dar es Salaam

Contents

Preface

List of Figures and Tables

1	Introduction	1
	Sociology as a science of society 2; Sociology and the study of social sciences, 7; Concepts in sociology, 10; Conclusion, 18
2	Social Organisation	21
	Types of societies, 21; Groups, 24; Leadership, 26; Social order, 33; Conclusion, 36
3	Interaction	38
	Socialisation, 38; Social exchange, 45; Social networks, 47; Conclusion, 51
4	Differentiation	53
	Social stratification, 54; Class, 60; Status, 71; Social mobility, 75; Ethnocentrism, 79; Conclusion, 90
5	Families	93
	Kinship, 93; Marriage, 98; Polygyny, 106; Marital breakdown, 108; Marital roles, 110; Power relationships in marriage, 115; Family change, 116; Conclusion, 123
6	Education	126
	Forms of education, 126; Functions, 127; Education and social mobility, 137; Schools and universities as organisations, 144; The teaching profession, 147; Conclusion, 157

7	Religion	153
	Belief systems, 153; Religion in society, 158; Ritual, 161; Integration and conflict, 162; Religious conversion, 163; Politics and religion, 167; Religion and healing, 169; Formal organisation, 172; Conclusion, 179
8	Economic Activities	181
	Occupations, 181; Women's work, 186; Industrial workers, 189; Unemployment, 192; The economy as an institution, 199; Conclusion, 203
9	Cities	205
	Urbanisation, 205; Pre-industrial cities, 212; Functions, 215; Planning, 216; Urban relationships, 218; Migration, 225; Housing, 235; Urban social life, 242; Conclusion, 250
10	Social Problems	253
	Poverty, 253; Disadvantaged groups, 261; Deviance and social control, 272; Conclusion; 280
11	Social Change	282
	Theories of change, 285; Development, 298; Response to change, 308; Conclusion, 313
	Bibliography	315
	Index	339