NEW WAYS OF ANALYZING SOUND CHANGE

Edited by

Penelope Eckert
Institute for Research on Learning
Palo Alto, California
CONTENTS

Contributors ix
Preface xi

The Three Dialects of English 1
William Labov

1.1. The Problem: How Do Dialects of English Differ? 1
1.2. General Principles of Chain Shifting 4
1.3. The Northern Cities Shift 14
1.4. The Southern Shift 22
1.5. Some General Principles Governing Merger 28
1.6. The Third Dialect 30
1.7. Overview and Some Further Questions 34
References 43

A Test for Mixed Rules 45
David Sankoff and Pascale Rousseau

2.1. Structure of a Schema 46
2.2. Analysis of Data According to a Schema 49
2.3. Some Examples 52
2.4. Mixed Rules 54
2.5. Conclusions 59
References 62
Contents

Ethnic Boundaries in Linguistic Variation 251
Rebecca Knack

9.1. Sampling and Methodology 252
9.2. The Variables and Social Behavior 254
9.3. Conclusion 268
   Appendix 9.1 268
   Appendix 9.2 271
   References 272

Index 273