

Beer, Sociability, and Masculinity in South Africa

Anne Kelk Mager

Indiana University Press

BLOOMINGTON AND INDIANAPOLIS

Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS VII

Introduction	1
1 Illicit Drinking, Prohibition, and Sociability in Apartheid's Townships	12
2 "If You Want to Run with the Big Dogs": Beer Wars, Competition, and Monopoly	28
3 Beer Advertising: Making Markets and Imagining Sociability in a Divided Society	47
4 "Tomorrow Will Also Be a Hard Day": Antisocial Drinking Cultures and Alcoholic Excess	66
5 Remaking the Old Order: Beer, Power, and Politics	80
6 Heritage and Beer Tourism: Reimagining Beer after Apartheid	106
7 Global Competition, World Class Manufacturing, and National Economic Restructuring	123
Epilogue: Global and Local	146
APPENDIX	151
NOTES	153
BIBLIOGRAPHY	207
INDEX	225