

My Life in the PLO

The Inside Story of the Palestinian Struggle

Shafiq al-Hout

Edited by Jean Said Makdisi and Martin Asser

Translated by Hader al-Hout and Laila Othman

PlutoPress
www.plutobooks.com

CONTENTS

List of photographs	vi
List of acronyms	vii
Glossary	ix
Foreword	xi
1 Jaffa, my city	1
2 From homeland to exile	19
3 From journalism to politics	38
4 The birth of the Palestine Liberation Organization	49
5 The factions gain control of the PLO	67
6 Jordanian–Palestinian relations	78
7 Nasser as I knew him	90
8 Fratricidal wars	103
9 The PLO at the United Nations	119
10 Palestine, around the globe	131
11 The Israeli invasion of Lebanon	148
12 The Sabra and Shatila massacre	158
13 After the departure	172
14 The mysterious triangle	182
15 The second exodus from Lebanon	202
16 The session that changed the path	217
17 The Intifada of Stones	229
18 Return to the Executive Committee	241
19 No final solution without a single democratic Palestine	252
20 The night of Abu Ammar's plane crash	262
21 Resigning in protest over the Oslo Agreement	270
22 After the resignation	282
23 My heart rebels	293
24 Coming out of a dark abyss	299
Index	305