

The Shona and their Neighbours

---

David Beach

BLACKWELL
Oxford UK & Cambridge USA

Contents

---

List of plates	ix
List of maps	x
List of place names	xi
Foreword by David W. Phillipson	xiii
Preface	xvii
Introduction	1
1 The Shona World and its Origins	15
Structures and Environments	16
Languages and their Frontiers	23
Dialects and Names	28
Theories of Origins	32
2 Society and Economy	43
An Outline of a Shona Village 1880s–1890s	43
The People of the Village	50
Health and Demography	53
Village Farming	55
Local Politics	59
Village Industry	61
Comparisons over Space and Time	63
3 The Early States of the Shona c.1000–1700	68
Defining the Imprecise	68
The Origins of a Third-World Economy	71
Different Trails to Great Zimbabwe	74

Great Zimbabwe	82
Torwa and Venda	93
The Origins of the Mutapa State and the Eastern Shona	97
The Mutapa State in Close-up	102
The Coming of the Portuguese	108
War and Politics in the East	110
4 Two Centuries of Change c.1700–1890	112
Economic Decline and Change	113
Decline and Change in the Mutapa State	115
The Portuguese ‘Conquest’	117
The Changamire State	119
Local Shona Politics	122
The Nyanga Culture	126
The Mfecane Problem	129
The Ndebele State	133
The Gaza State	137
The Independent Shona in the Nineteenth Century	139
5 Beliefs and Political Thought	142
The Thought of the Prehistoric Era	142
Theory and Practice: The Internal and the External	144
Forces of the External	147
Forces of the Internal	150
Political Thought: Theory	153
Political Thought: Practice	155
Foreign Thought	160
6 Conquest, Change and Challenge 1890–1990	164
The Road to Conquest	165
Conquest and Resistance	166
Colonial Rule	171
Nationalism, War and Transition	180
A Century of Change	183
Chronology of Events	196
Notes	203
Glossary	225
Bibliography	227
Index	240