

STRESS IN MODERN SOCIETY
Number 13

Dance and Stress

Resistance, Reduction, and Euphoria

Judith Lynne Hanna

Senior Research Scholar
University of Maryland

AMS PRESS, INC.
New York

Contents

Preface	xi
Part I: Setting the Stage
Chapter 1: In the Spotlight	3
Focus
Concept of Stress
Subjective and Sociocultural Appraisal
Causes
Eustress and Distress
Body Mobilization
Concept of Dance
Physical Dimensions
Affective Patterns
Cognitive, Nonverbal, Symbolic Communication
Chapter 2: Relationships Between Dance and Stress	18
Manifest and Latent Functions	18
Dance and the Prevention of Stress	19
Cognitive Process
Aesthetic-Symbolic-Physical Projection
Play
Distancing by Doing and/or Seeing
Empathy or Vicarious Experience of Past, Present, and Future
Physical Behavior
Movement
For Fitness
For Immunization

As Mechanism of Resistance Against Illness Fatigue Aging Effects Premenstrual Discomfort Tension Negative Affective States	23
Dance as a Response to Stress
Reduction of Stress
Choice and Control of Action
Projection
Play
Distancing
Diversion from Stress
Escape
Altered State of Consciousness
Chemical Reduction of Pain
Relaxation of Stress-Induced Tension
Tranquilizing Chemicals
Lengthening of Muscles
Counterindications for Dance as a Response to Stress
Dance and the Induction of Stress	27
Danced Social Criticism and Sensitive Subject Matter
Going to the Dance
Amateur Dancing
Intimidation
Incorrect Teaching
Miscommunication in Dance
Professional Dance Career
Inadequate Dance Training
Competition
Physical Injury
Stage Fright
Meeting Thinness Requirement
Becoming Tool of Choreographer and Losing Individuation

Short Performing Career
Lack of Rehearsal and Performance Space
Art/Business Conflict
Dance Therapist Disregard for Cultural Values
Caveat	31
Types of Stress Management Approaches	31
Religious Rituals
Secular Life Style
Secular Therapy
Rooted in Ritual Practices
Shared Patterns with Ritual Dance Approaches
Human Potential Model
Holistic Wellness Medical Model
Dualistic Medical Model
Styles of Intervention in Stress Situations	32
Autogenic
Directive
Evocative
Dance Genres Associated with Stress Reactivity	33
Ritual
Folk/Ethnic Social Theater
Exercise/Aesthetic
Therapy
Mixed Genre and Transformations

Part II: Illustrative Historical and Non-Western Dance–Stress Relations

Chapter 3: Meeting the Gods and Demons to
Cope with Stress	39
Praise and Appeal	39
Possession	40
Masking	44

Exorcism and Healing	45
Commentary	49
Chapter 4: Expelling Stressor Spider Venom and Shaking Off Death, Sin, and Evil	50
Tarantism
Black Death	55
Ketjak	56
Shakers	57
Commentary	59
Chapter 5: Coming to Terms with Stressful Life Crises Marriage, Birth, and Death in Nigerian Ubakala Igbo Dance-Plays	60
Samburu Role Transition and Dance	66
Lugbara Dances for Death and Life's Uncertainty	68
Dance and Transformation: Death/Disorder to Life/Order	70
Commentary	71
Chapter 6: Resolving Conflict and Ameliorating Stress	72
Ubakala Social Drama	72
Race Relations in Dallas	78
Commentary	85
Chapter 7: Revitalizing the Past to Recreate a Less Stressful Present: Asserting Ethnic Identity and Confronting Strangers	87
Bwiti	87
American Ghost Dance	91
Coast Salish Spirit Dancing	92
The Gourd Dance	95
Danza de la Conquista	96
Beni Ngoma	96
Commentary	97

Part III: Illustrative Western Dance-Stress Relations

Chapter 8: Playing with Stressors Onstage in Western
Theatrical Dance	101
Death	102
Repressed Sexuality and Unrequited Love	104
Americana, Sin, Perversity, and Alienation	104
Black Oppression	107
Women's Liberation	108
Homosexuality	109
Pain in Dance	111
Commentary	112
Chapter 9: Stressors in Pursuing the Western Dance Career	113
Society's Attitudes toward the Dancer	114
Choreographer and Dance Company Manager Behavior toward Dancers	117
Roadmaps	120
Careers and Career Transitions	122
Performance Anxiety, Cooperation, and Competition	124
Physical Injuries	129
Food and Weight	130
Politics	130
Improvisation Movement and Contemplative Creativity	131
Economic Survival	133
Commentary	137
Chapter 10: Resisting, Reducing, and Escaping Stress in
Western Amateur Dancing	138
Dancing Madness, Rock, and Disco	138
Marathons	141
Slam Dancing	142
Folk Dancing	143
The Ballroom Dance Studio	144
A Ballet Dance Class	145
Aerobic Dance	146

Dancing and Relaxation Exercises	146
Commentary	146
Chapter 11: Receiving Dance (Movement) Therapy
vis-à-vis Stress	148
Purposes and Approaches	148
Illustrative Stress Situations and Dance Therapy	155
Dance Therapy-Induced Stress	158
Commentary	160
Chapter 12: Conclusion: Stress and Dance Patterns	161
Why Dance?
Guidelines for Preventing, Reducing or Escaping Stress through Dance	163
Physical Cognitive
Guidelines for Analyzing Meaning in Movement	169
Commentary	173
References	175
Index	187