

Imagining the Cape Colony

History, Literature, and the South African Nation

David Johnson

EDINBURGH
University Press

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
1 Remembering the Khoikhoi Victory over Dom Francisco de Almeida at the Cape in 1510: Luís de Camões and Robert Southey	10
2 French Representations of the Cape 'Hottentots': Jean Tavernier, Jean-Jacques Rousseau and François Levaillant	35
3 The Scottish Enlightenment and Colonial Governance: Adam Smith, John Bruce and Lady Anne Barnard	64
4 African Land for the American Empire: John Adams, Benjamin Stout and Robert Semple	91
5 Historical and Literary Reiterations of Dutch Settler Republicanism	116
6 Literature and Cape Slavery	140
7 History and the Griqua Nation: Andries Waterboer and Hendrick Hendricks	158
Conclusion	188
References	194
Index	215