

An Anthology of Chartist Poetry

Poetry of the British Working Class, 1830s–1850s

EDITED BY

Peter Scheckner

Rutherford • Madison • Teaneck
Fairleigh Dickinson University Press
London and Toronto: Associated University Presses

Contents

Introduction	15
ANONYMOUS VERSES AND SONGS
Chester Gaol	59
The Judges Are Going to Jail	63
Air	66
How to Be a Great Lord	66
The State Pauper's Soliloquy	67
Chartists and Liberty	68
The Pauper's Drive	69
What Is a Peer?	70
The Tory Squire	71
The Patriot's Grave	72
American Stripes	72
Never Give Up	73
The Hermit	74
The Black and the White Slave	74
The Poor Man's Sins	76
Ode to Labour	77
Progress	79
The Toiler's Dream	80
A.L.
The Slaves' Address to British Females	82
A.M.P.
The Land of Freedom	83
A.R.
Friendship and War	85
A.W.
To the Sons of Toil	87
CRITO
Ode to Liberty	88
D.C.
Oppression	89

Contents

E. C. H.
Address to the Charter	90
E. P.
The Many and the Few	91
An English Workman's Address to England	93
F.
One and All	95
To the Chartists of Shropshire	96
To the Chartists of Wales	97
J. E.
The Factory Child	98
J. H.
Frost	99
J. W. C.
Rally Again, Boys	100
M. K.
We May, We Will, We Must, We Shall be Free	101
R.
The Capitalist	103
R. M. B.
Nursery Rhymes	105
S. J.
Presentation of the National Petition	107
Nine Cheers for the Charter	108
T. Z. Y.
The Contrast	109
W. A. K.
The Lion and the Gnat	110
W. B.
To the Poets of America	112
W. H. C.
The Voice of the People	114
JOHN ARNOTT
A Song Addressed to the Fraternal Democrats	114
BANDIERA
A Call to the People	116
GEORGE BINNS
To the Magistrates Who Committed Me to Prison Under the Darlington Cattle Act	119

Contents

Flowers and Slaves	120
The Chartist Mother's Song	122
"Give Us this Day Our Daily Bread"	123
JOHN HENRY BRAMWICH
A Hymn	124
Some Men That I Like	125
SHELDON CHADWICK	126
Labour's Anthem	126
Now Cometh the Storm	127
L. T. CLANCY
Impromptu	128
CHARLES COLE
The Strength of Tyranny	129
The Poet's Love of Liberty	130
Who Made the Poor?	131
THOMAS COOPER
The Lion of Freedom	133
Sonnets on the Death of Allen Davenport	134
Dedicatory Sonnet	135
The Purgatory of Suicides	136
ALLEN DAVENPORT
The Poet's Hope	138
Ireland in Chains	139
The Iron God	140
EBENEZER ELLIOTT
Corn-Law Rhymes	141
Reform	143
Lines	144
Battle Song	145
The Revolution of 1832	146
Extract from a Preface to a Former Edition	146
Hymn	147
The Primrose	148
Anticipation	149
Preston Mills	150
Famine in a Slave Ship	151
The Dying Boy to the Sloe Blossom	152
ALFRED FENNEL
The Red Flag	153
EDWIN GILL
The Charter for Ever Shall Weather the Storm	154

Contents

An Ode	155
X GEORGE JULIAN HARNEY
"All Men Are Brethren"	156
WILLIAM HICK
The Presentation of the National Petition, and the Motion of Mr. Duncombe	157
THOMAS HOOD
The Song of the Shirt	159
ALEXANDER HUISSH
The Radical's Litany	161
IOTA
Sonnets Devoted to Chartism	163
EBENEZER JONES
A Coming Cry	165
Song of the Kings of Gold	166
ERNEST JONES
Our Summons	168
A Chartist Chorus	169
Our Destiny	170
Our Warning	171
Our Cheer	172
The Blackstone-Edge Gathering	173
The Factory Town	175
A Song for May	179
The Royal Bounty	182
Onward	184
A Song for the People	185
The March of Freedom	186
The Marseillaise	192
The Song of the Gaggers	194
Bonnivard	195
Prison Bars	196
Prison Fancies	197
The Silent Cell	197
Hymn for Lammas-Day	199
We Are Silent	199
Farewell of the New Rheinisch Gazette	201
Liberty	203
Bread	203
Christian Love	205
The Prisoner to the Slaves	206

Contents

The Fishermen	206
Extract from the New World	208
The Song of the Low	209
The Song of the Future	211
The Poet's Death	213
The Poet's Mission	214
War, Love and Liberty	215
The Slave-Song	215
The American Maid	216
The Age of Peace	217
The Better Hope	220
Labour's History	222
England Greatness	224
EUGENE LA MONT
The Land of the Brave and the Free!	224
Universal Liberty—The Chartist Reaction	225
JONATHAN LEFEVRE
The Enslaved	226
WILLIAM JAMES LINTON
Rhymes for the Landlorded	228
Property	228
The Consecrated Land	229
Labour and Profit	229
The Dirge of the Nations	230
The Lament of the Present	235
For Rome!	236
A Glee	237
Peace and Hope	237
The Gathering of the People	238
Modern Monumental Inscriptions	239
In the Jesuits' Burial Ground	239
On the Tomb of General Eugène Cavaignac	239
For a Small Column in Memory of the Affliction of M. Thiers.	239
Under a Statue of Alphonse de Lamartine	239
For an Obelisk in Printing-House Square	240
Another for Lord John	240
Rhymes and Reasons Against Landlordism	240
The Slaves of the Soil	240
From the Centre Upwards	241
Property	242
Free Trade	243

Contents

Revenge	243
Emigrants	244
Emigration	245
The Way Out	246
Swing	247
Try Again	248
Nearing It	248
Irish Harvest Song	249
Landlordism	250
Tenant-Right	251
Our Heritage	251
The Poet's Mission	252
Monsters	253
The "Imprisoned"	254
'War!'—War!	256
ROBERT LOWERY
The Collier Boy	257
CHARLES MACKAY
The Good Time Coming	258
France and England	260
The Three Preachers	261
CLARENCE MANGAN
The Song of Hatred	264
GERALD MASSEY
Song of the Red Republican	265
The Red Banner	267
Lovers' Fancies	268
They Are Gone	269
The Men of "Forty-Eight"	271
A Red Republican Lyric	272
The Lords of Land and Money	273
Our Land	274
Things Will Go Better Yet	276
Kings Are But Giants Because We Kneel	276
The Awakening	278
The Coalition and the People	279
The Faith of the Philistine	281
Peace-at-any-Price Men	281
The Second Empire	282
John Bright	282
The Primrose Dame	284

Contents

D. F. M'CARTHY
The Voice and the Pen	285
EDWARD P. MEAD
The Steam King	287
A New Chartist Song	288
Chartist Song	289
The Brave Old King	291
J. M'OWEN
Father! Who Are the Chartists?	292
H. R. NICHOLLS
The Parliament	293
THOMAS NOEL
The Pauper's Drive	294
PETER PINDAR
Ode to Tyrants	296
JOSEPH RADFORD
The Charter	298
WILLIAM RIDER
The League	299
DAVID ROSS
A Call to the People	300
WILLIAM S. VILLIERS SANKEY
Ode	302
To Working Men of Every Clime	303
Rule Britannia!	304
Song	304
BENJAMIN STOTT
Song for the Millions	305
Song for the Millions	307
Song for the Millions	308
JAMES SYME
Labour Song	309
WILLIAM THOM
Dreamings of the Bereaved	311
The Mitherless Bairn	312
JAMES VERNON
Sonnet to Williams and Binns	313
JOHN WATKINS
Lines on Shell, Killed at Newport	314

Contents

Sonnet	315
Extract from the Play of John Frost	315
The Corn Laws and Emigration	317
C. WESTRAY
To the Chartists	318
The Voice of Freedom	319
THOMAS MARTIN WHEELER
Freedom and the Charter	320
The Chartist Bold	321
THOMAS WILSON
A Song for those Who Like to Sing It	322
JOHN ATHOL WOOD
Thou Art a Self-Degraded Slave	322
DAVID WRIGHT
British Freedom	325
Notes	326
Bibliography	346
Index of Poem Titles	351