

German-Jewish History in Modern Times

Edited by Michael A. Meyer

MICHAEL BRENNER, ASSISTANT EDITOR

VOLUME 1

Tradition and Enlightenment

1600–1780

MORDECHAI BREUER • MICHAEL GRAETZ

Translated by William Templer

A Project of the Leo Baeck Institute

Columbia University Press

NEW YORK

Contents

Preface to the Series Michael A. Meyer	ix
Introduction Mordechai Breuer	1
PROLOGUE: THE JEWISH MIDDLE AGES Mordechai Breuer	7
1. The Beginnings of Jewish Settlement	8
2. Church, State, and Economy	9
3. Early Ashkenazi Culture and Community	16
4. The First Crusade and Subsequent Developments	21
5. Flowering of Ashkenazi Intellectual and Communal Life	34
6. Deterioration of the Legal Situation, Persecutions, and Expulsions	41
7. Internal Jewish Life in the Late Middle Ages	53
8. Humanism and Reformation	57
9. The Jewish Community in the Sixteenth Century	70
10. End of an Era and New Beginnings	75

PART I THE EARLY MODERN PERIOD

Mordechai Breuer	79
Chapter 1 The Dawn of Early Modern Times	81
1. The Situation at the Beginning of the Seventeenth Century	82
2. Events in Frankfurt am Main	87
3. The Jews in the Thirty Years War	94
4. The Impact of 1648	97
5. Admission of the Jews into Brandenburg-Prussia	102
Chapter 2 The Court Jews	104
1. Court Jews in the Economy and Politics	105
2. Court Jews and the Jewish Community	117
3. The Historical Significance of the Court Jews	122
Chapter 3 The Jews in the Age of Mercantilism        and Early Absolutism	127
1. Branches and Centers of Jewish Trade	127
2. The Regulation of Jewish Existence	134
Chapter 4 The Jewish Minority in the Enlightened        Absolutist State	144
1. Jewry Policy in the Eighteenth Century	144
2. Relations Between Jews and Christians	155
Chapter 5 Community, Society, and Domestic Life	165
1. Community Administration and the Rabbinate	165
2. Institutions and Associations	172
3. Community and Family Life	176
4. Education	184
5. Tensions and Conflicts	187
6. The Jews in the Countryside	191

Chapter 6 The Landjudenschaften	194
1. The Organization of the Landjudenschaften	195
2. The Territorial Rabbinate	203
3. Later Developments	206
Chapter 7 Intellectual and Religious Life	209
1. The Traditional Jewish Centers of Learning	209
2. Rabbinic Writings	215
3. Literature in Western Yiddish	219
4. Hebrew Printing	222
5. The Mystical Current	226
Chapter 8 Toward a New Era	229
1. The Sabbatian Movement	229
2. Scientific Attitudes Among the Rabbis	234
3. Venturing Into the Outside World	239
4. Social Problems Within and at the Periphery of the Communities	244
5. The Gradual Decline in Jewish Communal Autonomy	251
6. Internal Weakening of Rabbinical and Communal Authority	255
PART 2 THE JEWISH ENLIGHTENMENT
Michael Graetz	261
Chapter 9 Beginnings of the Haskalah	263
1. The Setting	263
2. A New Sociability	271
3. Enlightenment Philosophy and Jewish Religion	283
Chapter 10 The Haskalah as a Sociocultural         Phenomenon	294
1. The Circle Around Mendelssohn	294

2. Mendelssohn's Bible Project	304
3. Secularization of the Hebrew Language	312
4. Autobiography: On the Self-Understanding of the Maskilim	324
Chapter 11 Confrontation as a Transformative Force	333
1. Acceptance and Rejection	333
2. The Turn Toward Radical Solutions	344
Chapter 12 Jewish Enlightenment and Education	355
1. Pedagogic Thinking	355
2. The New Schools	367
Conclusion Michael Graetz	375
List of Abbreviations	381
Notes	383
Bibliographical Essay	393
Chronology	403
Sources of Illustrations	407
Index	409