
Mozambique

Who Calls
the Shots?

Joseph Hanlon

James Currey
LONDON

Indiana University Press
BLOOMINGTON AND INDIANAPOLIS

Contents

List of illustrations	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: Aid and Recolonization	1
Part I: Destroying the dream
1. Dreams fulfilled: 1975–80	9
2. Dreams shattered: 1981–83	18
3. One million dead	31
4. The helping hand of Uncle Sam	43
Part II: The aid invasion
5. Free beer?	54
6. Why is there a problem?	68
7. Keeping shops open	82
8. Disaster tourism	96
Part III: What kind of economy?
9. The road to structural adjustment: 1982–86	113
10. Is Mozambique a special case?	123
11. Devaluation, inflation and recession: 1987–89	133
12. Selling cigarettes on street corners	145
13. Doubts and second thoughts: 1990	158
14. What role for the state in the economy?	166
15. Controlling development	176
Part IV: Doing well by doing good
16. The aid industry	190
17. The new missionaries	203
18. OK for some	220
19. Lead us not into temptation	228
Part V: Who calls the shots?
20. Greed is good	239
21. Aid is political	248
22. Forced to beg	259

Appendices

1. Further economic tables	264
A.1 Basic economic data	264
A.2 Official development assistance as defined by OECD	269
A.3 Development assistance as reported by donors to the UN	270
A.4 Grain imports	271
A.5 Response to emergency appeals	274
2. Periodization	277
References	281
Index	291

List of text tables

2.1 Aid grain pledged in first half of 1983	21
2.2 Delivered aid grain: 1983-84	22
2.3 The emerging economic crisis: 1980-83	23
2.4 Decline in imports: 1980-83	24
3.1 People needing help: 1986-90	38
5.1 Importance of Mozambique as an aid recipient	61
5.2 Major aid donors	61
5.3 Response to emergency appeals	61
5.4 Donors' claimed price of grain, 1988	63
6.1 Food aid lorry attacks	74
15.1 State expenditure on health	180
15.2 Imports of medicines	183

List of maps, photographs & illustrations

Map: Mozambique	xiv
Child being vaccinated at the Mavalane health centre in Maputo	10
Displaced woman speaking at meeting in Gilé, Zambézia province, 1989	13
Woman whose ear was cut off by Renamo	19
Victims of a Renamo attack on a bus in Maputo province, 1987	32
Map: Conditions of Accessibility, February 1990	35
Refugee family living under a railway wagon at Moatize, Tete province	37
Tailor working on the porch of a shop, Mopeia	39
Mopeia Frelimo office in December 1988	39
Moamba hospital after 1988 Renamo attack	40
Presidents Chissano and Bush shake hands at the White House, 13 March 1990	45
Graph: Financial inflows	59
Graph: Grain imports	59
The Italian-funded and built Pequenos Libombos dam under construction	65
Oxfam advertisement	71
Christian Aid postcard	71
Man displaced by Renamo builds a new house in Chiweza, Gaza province	76
Loading sacks of aid maize flour onto a landing craft in Quelimane	88
Hortofrutícola fruit and vegetable stall in Maputo	127
Children selling chewing gum and cigarettes on a Maputo street corner	146
Displaced rural people who have fled to Caniçado in Gaza province	148
Workers sort cashew nuts in a factory now run by the state	167
New wells and handpumps have brought safe water to many people. Who will pay?	177
Technician shows farmers use of bamboo measuring stick in cassava planting	185
Christian Aid advertisement on Third World debt, 1990	206
Windmill in the Pemba green zone, installed by an NGO and now abandoned	218
Workers unload sacks of flour from a lorry in Quelimane	229
Flour spilled when unloading sacks is scooped up and taken – corruption?	229
Women of the Laulane cooperative in the Maputo green zone	251
Militiaman in a village outside Pemba	261