

The Future of Health and Health Care Systems in the Industrialized Societies

EDITED BY

Bui Dang Ha Doan

PRAEGER

New York
Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Preface	ix
I. Prospects in Health Status
1. Harald Hansluwka The Changing Health Spectrum— Reflections on the Future	3
2. John M. Last The Future of Health and Health Services	20
3. Ann R. Taket Health Trends in the European Region	35
4. Elisabeth Schach Health Status of the Population— Changes in the Past and Predictions for the Future of Life Expectancies	51
II. Prospects in Health Status: the Impact of Population Aging
5. George C. Myers Chronic Non-Life-Threatening Health Ailments—An Overlooked Dimension	67
6. Stein Osterlund Petersen The Aging of the Population— Some Consequences for the Hospital Sector in Norway	81
7. Lothar Horbach Demographic Change in the Federal Republic of Germany and Its Implications for the Future Health Care System	90

8.	Ian Pool and Janet Sceats Demographic Composition and Hospital Services until 2001, Waikato Hospital Board, New Zealand	98
III.	Prospects in Health Care Organization
9.	L. Bryan Hunt From a Chain to a Network—Trends and Developments in the Pattern of Health Care	115
10.	Marco Meneguzzo Perspectives of Change in Health Care Organizations—Some Considerations on the Recent Italian Experience	127
11.	Annette J. Stark Seven Years of Coordinated Long-Term Care in One Canadian Province—What Will Be Its Future?	140
IV.	Prospects in Health Care Organization: Some Issues Related to Specific Groups
12.	Danièle Levy A Prospective View of the Provision of Health Services in French Rural Areas	159
13.	Ray H. Èlling Workers' Health and the General Health Services	168
14.	Marilynn M. Rosenthal Struggling to Shift Resources to the Primary Sector—Lessons from Innovations in Swedish Diabetes Care	182
V.	Prospects in Drugs and Medical Technologies
15.	Thi D. Dao What Is on the Horizon for Drug Therapy—a Trend Analysis	203
16.	Jean-Pierre Thierry Technology and the Future of Health System	223
VI.	Prospects in Health Care Financing
17.	Jean-Pierre Poullier The Cathedrals of the Twenty-First Century—Some Economic Reflections on the Reduction of Excess Capacity in Hospitals	235

VII. Overview

18. Bui Dang Ha Doan The Health System in the First Decade of the Twenty-First Century 265

Index 279

About the Contributors 293