
Margaret Atwood's
Fairy-Tale
Sexual Politics

Sharon Rose Wilson

University Press of Mississippi Jackson

Contents

Abbreviations ix

Introduction xi

1. Intertextual Contexts and Purposes:

✓ Fairy Tales and the Medusa Artist 3

2. Sexual Politics in Atwood's Visual Art:

✓ "Fitcher's Bird" and the Triple Goddess 35

3. Cannibalism and Metamorphosis

✓ in The Edible Woman: "The Robber Bridegroom" 82

✓ 4. Decapitation, Cannibalism, and Rebirth in Surfacing:

"The Juniper Tree" and French-Canadian Tales 97

5. Dancing for Others in Lady Oracle:

✓ The Triple Goddess and "The Red Shoes" 120

6. Frozen Touch in You Are Happy: The Rapunzel Syndrome

✓ and "The Girl Without Hands" 136

7. Regrowing Touch in Life Before Man:

✓ "The Girl Without Hands" and The Wizard of Oz 165

8. The Artist's Marriage to Death in Bodily Harm:

✓ "The Robber Bridegroom"

and "The Girl Without Hands" 198

vi • Contents

9. Bluebeard's Forbidden Room in Interlunar
and "Bluebeard's Egg": "Fitcher's Bird,"
"The White Snake," and Other Tales 229
10. Off the Path to Grandma's House in The Handmaid's Tale:
"Little Red Cap" 271
- X 11. Cat's Eye Vision:
"Rapunzel" and "The Snow Queen" 295
- Appendix: Tale Types and Motifs 315
Notes 347
Works Cited 390
Index 411