

Improving the Global Economy

Keynesianism and the Growth in Output
and Employment

Edited by

Paul Davidson

J. Fred Holly Chair of Excellence in Political Economy, University of Tennessee, US

Jan A. Kregel

Professor of Political Economy, University of Bologna, Italy

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Lyme, US

Contents

List of contributors	vii
List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
Introduction	xv

PART I CONSUMPTION, INVESTMENT AND GOVERNMENT SPENDING

A Consumption

- 1 Aggregate consumption and the economics of Keynes
Kenneth J. Borghese and David C. Lund 5
- 2 Fictional basis of modern macroeconomics
David Bunting 50

B Investment

- 3 A direct test of Keynes's theory of investment: assessing the role of profit expectations and weight
Michael A. Anderson and Arthur H. Goldsmith 63
- 4 Keynes and the susceptibility of investment
Jerry Courvisanos 79
- 5 Different views on uncertainty and some policy implications
David Dequech 93
- 6 Disequilibrium pricing, critical equilibrium and the real cycle
Etelberto Ortíz C. 107

C Government Spending

- 7 The effects of the fiscal deficit on the composition of US GDP: an analysis of disaggregated data
Neil H. Buchanan 133

PART II ROUNDTABLE: CAN KEYNES'S EMPLOYMENT POLICIES REACH THE UNDERCLASS?

- 8 The problem of the 'extremely poor' in Brazil: are aggregate demand management policies enough?
Fernanda Lopes de Carvalho 175
- ✓ 9 Keynes, employment policy and the underclass
William Darity Jr 190
- 10 A new view of the NAIRU
Robert Eisner 196
- 11 It's time to ditch the NAIRU
James K. Galbraith 231
- 12 Employment policy, community development and the underclass
Dimitri B. Papadimitriou 248

PART III KEYNES AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

- 13 Imported capital goods and the small open economy
Penny Hawkins 265
- 14 The relevance of the principles of Keynesian economics for the transition to capitalism in today's underdeveloped world
Hartmut Elsenhans 283
- 15 Globalization and international competitiveness
William Milberg 304

PART IV INCOME DISTRIBUTION

- 16 Changes in income distributions and poverty rates in Central European transitional economies
Christopher J. Niggle 325

- Index* 341