

CENTRAL AMERICA

Historical Perspectives on the Contemporary Crises

Edited by Ralph Lee Woodward, Jr.

Contributions to the Study of World History,
Number 10

Greenwood Press
New York • Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

INTRODUCTION. Central America and Historical Perspective. Ralph Lee Woodward, Jr.	1
1. "Keeping the Europeans Out": The United States and Central America since 1823. Thomas M. Leonard	5
2. Metropole Rivalry in Central America, 1820s to 1929: An Overview. Thomas Schoonover	21
3. The United States and Rural Insurgency in Guatemala, 1960-1970: An Inter-American "Success Story"? Lawrence A. Yates	47
4. Indian Labor and the Guatemalan Crisis: Evidence from History and Anthropology. Marilyn M. Moors	67
5. Catholic Leaders and Spiritual Socialism during the Arévalo Administration in Guatemala, 1945-1951. Hubert J. Miller	85
6. Facing the Challenge: The Catholic Church and Social Change in Honduras. Edward T. and Donna W. Brett	107
7. The Miskito and the "Spanish": A Historical Perspective on the Ethnogenes and Persistence of a People. George P. Castile	131
8. "iPatria Libre o Muerte!" Death Imagery and the Poetry of Revolt in Nicaragua, 1900-1985. John D. Heyl	147
9. Sandinista Cultural Policy: Notes Toward an Analysis in Historical Context. David E. Whisnant	169
10. Belize and Revolutionary Grenada: A Partnership in the Caribbean, 1979-1983. Kai Schoenhals	193
11. Mexico and Central America: The Continuity of Policy. Hugh G. Campbell	219
12. The Nonmilitary Neutrality of Costa Rica. Frank J. Kendrick	241
References and Abbreviations Cited in Notes	261
About the Contributors	295
Index	297