

The Bundeswehr and Western Security

Edited by Stephen F. Szabo

Foreword by R. Gerald Livingston

Preface by General William Y. Smith, USAF (ret.)

M
MACMILLAN

Contents

Foreword by R. Gerald Livingston	viii
Preface: The Bundeswehr and NATO's Future Strategy by General William Y. Smith	x
Notes on the Contributors	xix
Introduction
Stephen F. Szabo	1
I The Historical and Alliance Context	2
II The Domestic Context	3
III Future Strategic Alternatives	5
IV Lingering Questions	8
PART I THE HISTORICAL AND ALLIANCE CONTEXT
1 Fundamentals of German Security: The Creation of the Bundeswehr – Continuity and Change
Catherine M. Kelleher	13
I Introduction	13
II Military Security: The Protection of Germany from External Threat	16
III International Political Security: The Protection of Others from Germany	21
IV Civic Security: The Protection of the German Military and German Society from One Another's Excesses	25
2 The Citizen in Uniform: Reform and its Critics in the Bundeswehr
Donald Abenheim	31
I Introduction: What is Innere Führung ?	31
II 'Magna Carta of the Bundeswehr': The Himmerod Memorandum	34
III Count Baudissin's 'Army Without Pathos'	36
IV Frictions: 'Reformers v. Traditionalists?'	40
V A 'Counter-Reformation'?	42
VI Conclusion	46
3 Perspectives on the German Contribution to Western Defence
Stanley R. Sloan	52
I In Historical Perspective	53
II The Federal Republic's Current Role in the Western Alliance	57
III Trends, Challenges and Implications	64

4 The Bundeswehr and Arms Control
Gale A. Mattox	71
I Background	72
II Conventional Force Negotiations	75
III 'Grey-Area' Theatre Nuclear Forces	77
IV The INF Debate Concludes	81
V The Bundeswehr, Arms Control and the Future	86
PART II THE DOMESTIC CONTEXT
5 The Bundeswehr and Public Opinion
Hans Rattinger	93
I Introduction	93
II Attitudes on the Security Environment	95
III Attitudes on the Bundeswehr	102
IV Attitudes on NATO	105
V Attitudes on the USA and US Military Presence	107
VI Attitudes on Strategic Concepts	109
VII Attitudes on National Security by Partisan Preference and Age	112
VIII Concluding Remarks	118
6 Party Politics and Security Policies in the FRG
Jeffrey Boutwell	123
I Security Issues in the 1950s	125
II The West German Security Consensus	127
III Party Politics in the FRG	130
IV Social Democratic Security Policies	132
V The Security Policies of the CDU-CSU	135
VI The Free Democrats	139
VII The Green Party	141
VIII Summary	143
7 Strategy and Defence Budgeting in the Federal Republic of Germany
Richard C. Eichenberg	149
I Introduction	149
II How Grand Is West German Strategy?	150
III The West German Defence Budget	155
IV Conclusion	167
PART III FUTURE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVES
8 The Forces and the Future
Klaus Naumann	173
I Introduction	173
II The Setting	173

III Force Structure Options	177
IV Resources	179
V Outline of a Force Structure 2000	184
VI Concluding Remarks	187
9 Alternative Defence – Answer to the Bundeswehr’s Post-INF Problems?
Jonathan Dean	188
I Criticisms of the NATO Force Posture	189
II Group I: Non-violent Social Resistance	195
III Group II: ‘Classic’ Models of Alternative Defence	197
IV Group III: Modifications of the Present NATO Force Posture	202
V Arms Control Aspects	210
VI Conclusions	213
10 Franco–German Defence Cooperation
David S. Yost	217
I From the 1950s to the 1980s	218
II Achievements Since 1982	221
III Armaments	224
IV Conventional Force Planning	227
V Nuclear Force Planning	234
VI Attitudes and Perceptions	242
VII Conclusion	246
Index	259