

Haroub Othman (editor)

Reflections On Leadership In Africa:
Forty Years After Independence

*Essays in Honour of Mwalimu Julius K. Nyerere,
on the Occasion of his 75th Birthday*

Institute of Development Studies
University of Dar es Salaam

VUB UNIVERSITY
P R E S S

Contents

Acknowledgements 9

1. Introduction 13
Haroub Othman & Mohamed Halfani
2. Reflections 17
Mwalimu Julius K. Nyerere
3. Critical Elements of a New Democratic Consensus in Africa 25
Issa G. Shivji
4. Leadership and the Dynamics of Reform in Africa 39
Omonyi Adewoye
5. For a Progressive and Democratic New world Order 49
Samir Amin
6. Vision of Leaders in the 21st Century: The Nyerere Legacy 67
Horace Campbell
7. Oliver Tambo: A Reluctant President? 93
Vladimir Shubin
8. Leadership, Nationalism and Forty Years of Ethnic Conflicts in Africa 117
Gaudens P. Mpangala
9. Who Leads to Where? African Leadership into The 21st Century 131
David Conzalez
10. Perspectives on Globalisation and Regionalisation: A View from South Africa 159
Rob Davis
11. Globalisation and Marginalisation: Africa's Economic Challenges in the 21st Century 179
S.M. Wangwe
12. Transformative Education and the Strengthening of Civil Society 195
Marjorie Mbilinyi
13. From Reconstruction and Development to Neo-Liberal Modernisation in South Africa 217
Patrick Bond
14. Presidential Oratory for the Pan-African Cause: The Nyerere Harangues 287
Aza. F. Lwaitama

Notes on Contributors 311