

Speech, Chant, and Song in an Appalachian Baptist Church

POWERHOUSE FOR GOD

By Jeff Todd Titon

University of Texas Press, Austin

Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xv
PROLOGUE	i
INTRODUCTION	5
Folklife: Affect, Performance, Community, Memory	7
The Interpretative Dialogues	10
Language and Life	14
The Fieldwork of Documentation	15
1. HOMECOMING	23
2. LAND AND LIFE	58
A Visit to Brother Rastus	59
Old-Fashioned by Intent	62
Oral History: Mountain Farming	63
The Folklife of Mountain Farming	66
Material Forms: Economy and Ecology of Mountain Farming	68
Material and Social Forms: Farming and the Family	70
Material, Social, and Religious Forms: Husbandry	75
Getting behind "History"	76
The Geographical Context	79
Pre-Settlement	80
Migration and Settlement to 1850	87
The Page Valley Economy to 1860	95
The German Mixed-Farming Crop-Livestock Pattern in Page Valley	100
Calculating Farm Household Food Production and Diet	103
Mountain Farming, 1850–1880: Entrenchment	106
Dependence	115
Subsistence	124

Out-Migration and the Shenandoah National Park Removals	128
The Household Economy and the Mountain Mind-set	129
Entering the Cash-Wage Economy	133
Persistence of the Mountain-Farming Mind-set	137
3. RELIGION	141
Folk Religion and Official Religion	144
History: Evangelism, Old and New	149
Religion in Appalachia: Missionaries and Sociologists	157
The Fellowship Independent Baptist Church	162
What It Means to Be Old-Fashioned	169
Family	174
Religious History in Page County	177
4. LANGUAGE	192
"The Language Itself"	195
Language and Conversion	196
Language, Power, and the Blessing of the Spirit	200
The Meaning of Language in Religious Practice	203
The Performed Word	206
Poetic and Interpretative Language in Religious Practice	207
Language and the Order of Worship	210
5. SINGING	213
Social Organization of the Music	215
Repertory	219
Ideas about Music	252
6. PRAYER	257
The Altar Prayer	259
The Offering Prayer	266
The Healing Prayer	268
The Radio Broadcast Prayer	271
The Altar-Call Prayer	273
Composition at the Moment of Performance	278
Affect, Performance, and the Praying Community	288
7. TEACHING AND PREACHING	293
Teaching	293
Performance and Community in Sunday School	295

Preaching	301
Ideas about Preaching	302
The Preacher and the Congregation	310
The Call to Preach	311
"Call-to-Preach" Narratives	316
Sermons	322
A Representative Sermon	324
Sermons: Themes and Subjects	335
Sermon Narratives and the Analogical Cast of Mind	353
8. TESTIMONY AND THE CONVERSION NARRATIVE	359
Identity and Madness in Personal Reminiscence Testimonies	360
The Church Members' Ideas about Testimony	374
The Homiletic Testimony	377
Conversion and Testimony: The Conversion Narrative	382
Conversion: Performance and Community	404
9. THE LIFE STORY	408
The Life Story, the Self-Made Man, and the God-Made Man	408
Brother John's Life Story	412
Allegoresis and the Folk Hermeneutic	421
Biography and the Life Story	425
From Husbandry through Performance to Community	456
EPILOGUE	462
APPENDIX A: Bylaws of the Fellowship Independent Baptist Church	469
APPENDIX B: Probate Inventories and Sale Bills	477
APPENDIX C: Household Agricultural Inventories, Valley Farmers	487
APPENDIX D: Household Agricultural Inventories, Mountain Farmers	490
APPENDIX E: Recordings and Interviews	499
REFERENCES CITED	503
INDEX	513