

LIBERIA:

A National Polity in Transition

by

D. ELWOOD DUNN

and

S. BYRON TARR

The Scarecrow Press, Inc.
Metuchen, N.J., & London
1988

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Preface	xi
INTRODUCTION	1
1. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND	9
Early Peoples of the Grain Coast	9
Europe's Early Interaction with Grain Coasters	11
The Transatlantic Slave Trade and Its Effects on the Grain Coast	14
Abolition and Repatriate Entry	17
Foundation of Liberian State	21
2. LIBERIAN SOCIETY	27
Ethnic Composition and Characteristics	29
Population and Labor Force	33
Social Issues	39
Social Values and Change	40
3. THE LIBERIAN POLITY: THE FIRST REPUBLIC	42
Nineteenth-Century Origins	42
Institutions and Processes	46
The Tubman Years, 1944-1971	57
The Extraordinary Seventies	65
Judgments on an Era	82
4. THE MILITARY INTERREGNUM	86
Context of the Military Intervention	86
The 1980 Coup and Its Immediate Aftermath.	93
Making of New Constitution and Politics of Return to Civilian Rule	98

The 1985 Elections and Their Differential Results	115
A Second Republic or Civilianization of Military Rule?	122
5. THE LIBERIAN ECONOMY	125
The Economy Today	127
Prospects for Recovery and Growth	157
6. FOREIGN RELATIONS	166
Diplomatic Origins and Recognition	166
Relations with the West	168
Liberia and Africa	178
Liberia and International Organizations	190
Liberia and the Communist World	191
FUTURE PROSPECTS	194
Appendixes	202
Notes	207
Selected Bibliography	229
Index	243