

David E. Cooper

Metaphor

Aristotelian Society Series

Volume 5

Basil Blackwell · Oxford

Contents

|                                               |     |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgements                              | vi  |
| 1 The Emergence of Metaphor                   | 1   |
| (A) Questions of demarcation                  | 5   |
| (B) 'Metaphor etc. . . . '             | 12  |
| (C) Literal and non-literal                   | 21  |
| (D) 'A multi-dimensional problem'             | 34  |
| 2 Meaning and Metaphor                        | 45  |
| (A) The traditional view                      | 46  |
| (B) Metaphor and speaker's meaning            | 66  |
| (C) Metaphor without meaning                  | 89  |
| 3 The Scope and Function of Metaphorical Talk | 118 |
| (A) 'Dead metaphor'                           | 118 |
| (B) Why do we talk metaphorically?            | 140 |
| (C) Demarcation again                         | 178 |
| 4 Metaphor and Truth                          | 198 |
| (A) Vicarious truth                           | 200 |
| (B) Schema, mimesis and 'seeing as'    | 216 |
| (C) Metaphor without truth                    | 238 |
| (D) The primacy of metaphor                   | 257 |
| Index                                         | 280 |