

HOLOCAUST HISTORIOGRAPHY

A Jewish Perspective

Conceptualizations, Terminology,
Approaches and Fundamental Issues

DAN MICHMAN

Bar-Ilan University

VALLENTINE MITCHELL
LONDON • PORTLAND, OR

Contents

Introduction	1
Part I: 'The Holocaust'
– 'The Holocaust' in the Eyes of Historians: The Problem of Conceptualization, Periodization, and Explanation	9
Appendix: Historians of the 1990s	41
– The Jewish Dimension of the Holocaust: The Context of Modern Jewish History	59
Part II: The 'Final Solution'
– The 'Final Solution to the Jewish Question', its Emergence and Implementation: The State of Research and its Implications for other Issues in Holocaust Research	91
Part III: Fascism and National-Socialism
– What Distinguishes Fascism from Nazism?: Dutch Fascism before and during the Holocaust as a Test Case	129
– Italian Fascism and the Jewish Fate in the Holocaust: Additional Remarks on the Difference between Fascism and Nazism	148
Part IV: Judenrat
– Jewish 'Headships' under Nazi Rule: The Evolution and Implementation of an Administrative Concept	159
Part V: Relief, Rescue, Foresight
– Elucidation of the Concept of 'Rescue during the Holocaust'	179
– Ze'ev (Vladimir) Jabotinsky: The 'Evacuation Plan' and the Problem of Foreseeing the Holocaust	205
Appendix: Jabotinsky's Cable in the Wake of Kristallnacht	212
Part VI: Resistance
– Jewish Resistance during the Holocaust and its Significance: Theoretical Observations	217
Part VII: Religious Jewry and the Jewish Religion
– Jewish Religious Life under Nazi Domination: Nazi Attitudes and Jewish Problems	251

– Daily Life of the Religious Jew under Holocaust Conditions	270
– ‘In Faithfulness Thou Hast Afflicted Me’ (Psalms 119:75): Remarks on Trends in Religious Faith during the Holocaust	285
Part VIII: Holocaust and Rebirth
– The Causal Relationship between the Holocaust and the Birth of Israel: Historiography between Myth and Reality	303
Appendix: On the Definition of ‘ She’erit Hapletah ’	329
Part IX: Holocaust Historiography: History and Problems
– Research on the Holocaust: A History of the Discipline from a Bird’s-Eye View	335
– One Theme, Multiple Voices: Language and Culture in Holocaust Research	357
– Research on ‘Zionism vis-à-vis the Holocaust’: Polemics, Problems and Terminology	389
Index	417