

The Apocalypse in the Early Middle Ages

---

James T. Palmer

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

---

List of figures	page viii
List of maps	ix
Acknowledgements	x
List of abbreviations	xii
 Introduction: how the world ends	 1
1 The end of civilisation (c. 380–c. 575)	25
2 The new urgency (c. 550–c. 604)	55
3 The ends of time and space (c. 600–c. 735)	79
4 Pseudo-Methodius and the problem of evil (c. 680–c. 800)	107
5 Charlemagne, pater Europae (c. 750–c. 820)	130
6 A Golden Age in danger (c. 820–c. 911)	159
7 The Year 1000 and other apocalypticisms (c. 911–c. 1033)	189
Conclusion: the end (c. 400–c. 1033)	227
 Select bibliography	 236
Index of manuscript references	248
General index	250