

Ethics and international relations

edited by

ANTHONY ELLIS

MANCHESTER
UNIVERSITY PRESS

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE FULBRIGHT COMMISSION, LONDON

Contents

Foreword		vii
Introduction		ix

Papers delivered in plenary session

Theories of justice and international relations: the limits of liberal theory	JAMES FISHKIN	1
Reply to Professor Fishkin	ANTONY FLEW	12
Chairman's comments	RENFORD BAMBROUGH	19
Discussion		20
The ethics of international intervention	JEFF McMAHAN	24
Reply to Dr McMahan	NEIL MacCORMICK	52
Chairman's comments	STEPHEN CLARK	55
Discussion		56
Can states be moral? International morality and the compliance problem	BRIAN BARRY	61
Reply to Professor Barry	ROBERT FULLINWIDER	84
Discussion		89
The logic and ethics of nuclear deterrence	ANTHONY KENNY	92
Reply to Dr Kenny	ARTHUR HOCKADAY	105
Discussion		110

Papers delivered in open session

The self, morality and the nation-state	BRIAN BAXTER	114
Multinational decision-making: reconciling international norms	THOMAS DONALDSON	127
Is enduring good order between 'states' really possible?	PETER INGRAM	141
Equal pay for equal work in the Third World	HUGH LEHMAN	155

Institutional rights and international duties: some reflections on Henry Shue's argument	DAVID S. SCARROW	163
Conflicting conceptions of deterrence	HENRY SHUE	171
The poor against the rich: the case for action welfare rights	JAMES P. STERBA	202
Reflections on injustice and international politics	MOORHEAD WRIGHT	213
Programme of the colloquium		222
List of participants		224
Indexes		227