

The Moral Economy

John P. Powelson

Ann Arbor

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN PRESS

Contents

Preface .....	xi
---------------	----

Part One: The Problems of Economic Morality

Introduction .....	1
1. Beyond the Twenty-First Century .....	5
What, When, and How .....	8
Classic Liberalism .....	10
Balance of Power .....	11
Classic Liberalism and Interventionism .....	14
The Meaning of "Liberal" .....	16
Economic Morality and Institutions .....	18
Plan for This Book .....	19
"Take Back the Word" .....	20
2. Power and the Market .....	21
Vicarious Power .....	23
The Consumer and the Market .....	24
Intervention by the Private Sector .....	26
The Power-Diffusion Process .....	28
The History of Liberalism .....	32
Two Rules on Power .....	33
The Welfare State .....	35
Profit .....	36
3. Poverty .....	39
The Gap between the More and the Less Developed World .....	39
The Internal Gap .....	40
Less Developed Areas: The Internal Gap Remains .....	41
More Developed Areas: The Internal Gap Narrows .....	49
• Conclusion .....	55
4. Environment, Population, and Gender and Ethnic Bias .....	56
Environment and Resources .....	56
The Solution: Pay the Cost .....	59
Global Warming and the Ozone Layer .....	63
/ Population .....	68
Inequality .....	72
Cultural Diversity and Affirmative Action .....	76
Conclusion .....	80

5. Welfare, Social Security, and Health Care .....	81
Privatization and the Downsizing of Government .....	81
Welfare .....	82
Pensions and Social Security .....	86
Health Care .....	90
How Can Classical Liberal Arrangements Be Adopted .....	98

Part Two: Institutions of the Moral Economy

The Argument So Far .....	101
6. Accountability, Trust, and the Management of Resources .....	103
From Vertical to Mutual Accountability .....	104
Trust .....	110
Management of Resources .....	114
The Wildest Hypothesis .....	119
7. Property, Inflation, and Money .....	120
Property .....	120
Money and Inflation .....	128
8. Law, Corruption, Government Regulation, and Taxes .....	138
Law .....	138
Corruption .....	142
Government Regulation .....	148
Taxes .....	153
9. Education and Religion .....	160
Education .....	160
Religion .....	171
10. Morality and Values .....	176
Values .....	178
Respect for Human Rights .....	179
Confrontation and Compromise .....	185
Autonomy: A Moral Precept .....	190
Personal versus Business Morality .....	191
11. Ukraine—A Personal Interlude .....	195
Political Imperialism .....	196
Economic Imperialism .....	196
Economic Failure .....	197
The Hostility of Russia .....	198
Attitudes toward the Soviet Union .....	198
12. The Horizon .....	201
Dimensions of the Moral Economy .....	201
The Moral Economy in History .....	201

Separation of the Economic from Other Subcultures .....	202
Economics as a Leading Force .....	204
Social and Private Costs and Benefits .....	206
The End of Paternalism .....	206
Redistributions of Income .....	207
Government .....	209
Nongovernmental Agencies .....	210
Environmental Regulations .....	210
Education .....	211
Entrepreneurs, Business Managers, and Universities .....	211
Reorientation of Resources for Litigation and Behavior Control .....	212
Price Control and the Minimum Wage .....	213
Antitrust and the Cyber-Shopper .....	213
War .....	215
Cross-Cultural Property Transactions .....	216
Compromise .....	219
Mexico in the 1990s: The Case of a Less Developed Country ....	220
The East Asian Crisis of 1997-98 .....	222
From Here to There .....	226
Notes .....	231
Bibliography .....	251
Index .....	265