

Agriculture under the
Common Agricultural Policy
A GEOGRAPHY

Ian R. Bowler

Manchester University Press

Contents

Tables and figures	vi
Preface	xi
1. The CAP and the process of integration in the European Community	1
2. Policy making for agriculture: the central institutions	15
3. Policy making for agriculture: the agricultural interest	30
4. The development of the CAP	46
5. Technical aspects of the CAP	65
6. The national concentration of agricultural production	85
7. Regional trends in the specialisation of agriculture: crops	111
8. Regional trends in the specialisation of agriculture: livestock products	139
9. Agricultural trade under the CAP	167
10. Changes in the farm-size structure of agriculture	191
11. Conclusion – the second enlargement and prospects for the CAP	222
Appendix Glossary of acronyms	245
Index	247