

NUER PROPHETS

A History of Prophecy from the Upper Nile in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries

DOUGLAS H. JOHNSON

CLARENDON PRESS · OXFORD
1994

CONTENTS

List of Figures	xvi
List of Maps	xvii
Note on Orthography	xviii
Abbreviations and Glossary	xix

PART I: PRELUDE

1. 'The Hammer of the Kujurs': Government, Ethnography, and Nilotic Religions	3
2. DENG and Aiwel: Elements of the Prophetic Idiom and Definition of the Moral Community	35

PART II: PROPHETS

3. Ngundeng: Prophetic Inspiration on the Eastern Frontier	73
4. Deng Laka: A Pragmatic Prophet	126
5. Guek Ngundeng and the Minor Prophets: Divinity Dispersed	164
6. Dual Diu and the Continuity of a Prophetic Tradition	204
7. Prophetic Rivalries in the Western Homeland	242

PART III: PROPHECY

8. Prophetic Traditions in Peace and War	289
9. The Life of Prophecy	327

APPENDICES

1. Nilotic Populations	357
2. Nuer Divisions	360
3. Nuer Age-Sets	362
Sources and References	364
Index	381