

A History of Israel

Ahron Bregman

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Maps	x
Preface	xi
1 The Road to Statehood, 1897–1947	1
Theodor Herzl	1
Eretz Yisrael	7
Palestine in the First World War	13
The post-war period	18
The British Mandate	21
The Arab Rebellion, 1936–39	27
Palestine in the Second World War	33
Turning on the British	37
Partition and civil war	39
2 The Birth of Israel, 1948–1949	44
Friday, 14 May 1948	44
War	47
End of war and the emergence of a democracy	59
3 Years of Consolidation, 1950–1966	70
Mass immigration	70
Communal problems	71
The economy in crisis	75
Tensions along the borders	79
New leadership	81
The politicization of the Holocaust	86
The 1956 Kadesh campaign and after	88
Domestic issues	93
The Lavon Affair	95
Germany again	98
Enter Levy Eshkol	100
4 The Six-Day War and Afterwards, 1967–1973	104
Descent to war	104
The waiting period	110

Six days of war	116
The new society	123
Snail's pace diplomacy	125
Enter Golda Meir	129
War of attrition	130
Golda and Anwar el-Sadat	134
Terrorism, immigration and riots	136
 5 Yom Kippur War and the Death of Labour, 1973–1977	 139
Sadat prepares war	139
Israel stumbles into the trap	142
Invasion	151
Fighting back	154
Post-war: society and diplomacy	156
The Agranat report	157
Enter Yitzhak Rabin	159
Enter Shimon Peres	165
 6 Begin's Years, 1977–1983	 168
Building a coalition	168
First steps to peace	170
The home front	176
Camp David and after	183
'Tamuz 1'	191
A second Likud government	194
War in Lebanon	196
 7 The Road to Peace, 1983–1991	 205
Enter Yitzhak Shamir	205
Working Together	208
Intifada	215
Immigration and death of the coalition	221
War and immigration	227
The road to peace	230
The Madrid Peace Conference	232
 8 Peace and War, 1992 to Present	 236
Enter Yitzhak Rabin	236

Enter Benjamin Netanyahu	254
Enter Ehud Barak	261
Enter Ariel Sharon	277
Appendix 1: The Dayan el-Tohami Protocol, 1977	287
Appendix 2: Draft Declaration of Principles, Israel–Syria, 1992	291
Notes	295
Further Reading	302
Index	308