

THE FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE ORIGINS OF
THE FIRST WORLD WAR
1898-1914

M. B. HAYNE

CLARENDON PRESS · OXFORD
1993

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	viii
Introduction	I
1. The Foreign Ministry at the End of the Nineteenth Century: Its History, Structure, and Practice	5
2. The Quai d'Orsay and External Influences, 1898-1914	29
3. Delcassé and the Centrale, 1898-1904	58
4. Delcassé and the Ambassadorial Élite, 1898-1904	76
5. Foreign Policy under Delcassé, 1898-1904	95
6. The First Moroccan Crisis, 1904-1906	116
7. The 1907 Reforms	144
8. Pichon's First Ministry, 1906-1909	171
9. Internal Disarray and External Crisis: The Quai d'Orsay and the Second Moroccan Crisis, 1909-1911	199
10. Poincaré, Pichon, and Doumergue at the Quai d'Orsay, 1912- 1914	229
11. The Quai d'Orsay and the July Crisis of 1914	269
Conclusion	302
Bibliography	309
Index	322