

Cultural Struggle & Development in Southern Africa

Edited by Preben Kaarsholm

Associate Professor in International Development Studies,
Roskilde University Centre
Formerly Research Fellow, Centre for Research in the Humanities,
University of Copenhagen

Baobab Books
HARARE

James Currey
LONDON

Heinemann
PORTSMOUTH (N.H.)

Contents

Preben Kaarsholm:
Introduction	1
 Part One: Colonial Ideology and Post-Independence Culture
 John M. MacKenzie:
The Natural World and the Popular Consciousness in Southern Africa: The European Appropriation of Nature	13
Preben Kaarsholm:
From Decadence to Authenticity and Beyond: Fantasies and Mythologies of War in Rhodesia and Zimbabwe, 1965-1985	33
Stephen Williams:
Art in Zimbabwe: From Colonialism to Independence	61
Kimani Gecau:
Culture and the Tasks of Development in Africa: Lessons from the Kenyan Experience	75
David Coute:
Marechera in Black and White	95
 Part Two: Nationalist Struggles, Popular Culture and Democracy
 K. D. Manungo:
The Peasantry in Zimbabwe: A Vehicle for Change	115
Norma Kriger:
Popular Struggles in Zimbabwe's War of National Liberation	125
Terence Ranger:
Religion and Witchcraft in Everyday Life in Contemporary Zimbabwe.....	149

Welshman Ncube and Shephard Nzombe: Continuity and Change in the Constitutional Development of Zimbabwe	167
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Part Three: The Culture and Politics of Popular Participation

Kate Crehan: Structures of Meaning and Structures of Interest: Peasants and Planners in North-Western Zambia	185
Luke Mhlaba: Local Cultures and Development in Zimbabwe: The Case of Matabeleland	209
Bodil Folke Frederiksen: City Life and City Texts: Popular Knowledge and Articulation in the Slums of Nairobi	227
Jeff Guy and Motlatsi Thabane: Basotho Miners, Oral History and Workers' Strategies	239