

African Renaissance

The New Struggle

Edited by
Malegapuru William Makgoba

Mafube ● Tafelberg

Contents

Introduction	i
Malegapuru William Makgoba, Thaninga Shope and Thami Mazwai
Prologue	xiii
Thabo Mbeki
Part One: African Renaissance: The Context
1. Africa: Mankind's Past and Future	3
Dialo Diop
2. The African Renaissance in Historical Perspective	10
Bernard Makhosezwe Magubane
3. African Renaissance or Warlordism?	37
Kwesi Kwaa Prah
4. The Crisis in the Great Lakes Region	62
Georges Nzongola-Ntalaja
5. Reconciliation and Social Justice in Southern Africa: The Zimbabwe Experience	77
Ibbo Mandaza
6. The History and Destiny of National Minorities in the African Renaissance: The Case for Better Boundaries	91
Willie Breytenbach
7. African Renaissance and International Relations	101
John Stremlau
8. There Can Be No African Renaissance without an Africa-focused Intelligentsia	125
Mahmood Mamdani

Part Two: Moral Renewal and African Values
9. The Renewal of African Moral Values	137
N. Barney Pitjana
10. Moral Renewal and African Experience(s)	149
Lesiba Teffo
Part Three: Culture and Education
11. Eurocentric and Afrocentric Perspectives on Ancient African History	173
Mbulelo Mzamane
12. The Missing Link between Culture and Education: Are We Still Chasing Gods that Are not Our Own?	184
Pitika P. Ntuli
13. The Problem of African Universities	200
Herbert W. Vilakazi
14. African Culture in Education for Sustainable Development	210
Micere Githae Mugo
15. Making This Our Last Passive Moment: The Way Forward	233
Catherine A. Odora Hoppers, Teboho Moja and Thobeka Mda
Part Four: Political and Economic Transformation
16. African Renaissance as an Historical Challenge	243
Sémou Pathé Guèye
17. The Political Economy of an African Renaissance: Understanding the Structural Conditions and Forms	266
Sibusiso Vil-Nkomo and Johan Myburgh
18. The Institutional Structures that Should Underpin the African Renaissance	279
Reuel J. Khoza
19. Maximising the Return on Africa's Assets	289
Wendy Luhabe
20. Afrikatourism	298
Nthobi Moahloli

Part Five: Science and Technology
21. The Lost Sciences of Africa: An Overview	305
Ivan Van Sertima
22. The Role of Information and Communication Technologies in Science and Technology in Africa	331
Karima Bounemra Ben Soltane and Lishan Adam
23. The Renaissance through Science and Technology	344
Mashupye Ratale Kgaphola and Namane Magau
24. Science and Technology: Towards Prosperity in Africa	351
Mongane Wally Serote
Part Six: Media and Telecommunications
25. Crossing the Rubicon of Time and Double-crossing the Guillotine of Time	359
Atukwei Okai
26. Towards the African Renaissance Media	364
Chinweizu
27. The Media in the African Renaissance	376
Joel Netshitenzhe
28. The Role of Information in Promoting Economic Development in Sub-Saharan Africa	386
Edward Boateng
29. Telecommunications in Africa	399
Sizwe Nxasana
30. Media Studies and Practice Reborn: Recovering African Experiences	404
Keyan Tomaselli and Arnold Shepperson
Epilogue: Bricks and Mortar for the African Renaissance	417
Thami Mazwai
Notes and References	429
The Contributors	448
The Sponsors	452