

Martin Buber

His Intellectual and Scholarly Legacy

Edited by

Sam Berrin Shonkoff

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Preface VII

Sam Berrin Shonkoff

PART 1

Dialogues with Christianity

- 1 Theolatry and the Making-Present of the Nonrepresentable: Undoing (A)Theism in Eckhart and Buber 3
Elliot R. Wolfson
- 2 Defining Christianity and Judaism from the Perspective of Religious Anarchy: Martin Buber on Jesus and the Ba'al Shem Tov 33
Shaul Magid
- 3 "Companionable Being": American Theologians Engage Martin Buber 54
W. Clark Gilpin
- 4 Beyond the Law and Without the Cross: Martin Buber and Saint Paul as an Apostolic Competition between "Two Types of Faith" 66
Christoph Schmidt

PART 2

Dialogues with the Political

- 5 The Hard and the Soft: Moments in the Reception of Martin Buber as a Political Thinker 81
Samuel Hayim Brody
- 6 Versions of Binationalism in Said and Buber 103
Judith Butler
- 7 Martin Buber's Socialism 131
Michael Löwy
- 8 Buber's Provocation 140
Paul Mendes-Flohr

PART 3

Dialogues with Philosophy and Philosophers

- 9 From Genius to Taste: Martin Buber's Aestheticism 151
Sarah Scott
- 10 The Paradox of Realization: Buber on the Transcendental Boundary of Spatial Images 171
Martina Urban
- 11 Martin Buber and Leo Strauss: Notes on a Strained Relationship 194
Philipp von Wussow
- 12 Martin Buber and the Problem of Dialogue in Contemporary Thought 212
Hans Joas

PART 4

Dialogues with Jewish Sources

- 13 Religious Authenticity and Spiritual Resistance: Martin Buber and Biblical Hermeneutics 219
Michael Fishbane
- 14 Buber's Biblical Hermeneutics and Education—Some New Perspectives 233
Jonathan Cohen
- 15 The Tragedy of the Messianic Dialectic: Buber's Novel Gog and Magog 258
Fumio Ono
- 16 Sacramental Existence and Embodied Theology in Buber's Representation of Ḥasidism 273
Sam Berrin Shonkoff
- Index 303