

JFS

A history of the Jews' Free School,
London since 1732

GERRY BLACK

Tymsder Publishing

CONTENTS

- ix Acknowledgements
- xi Map
- xii List of Illustrations
- 1 Introduction
- 7 The role of education in Jewish life
- 13 The Talmud Torah – the early years
- 20 Education for the masses
- 25 Educating the Jewish poor
- 33 Ebenezer Square and Bell Lane
- 46 Moses Angel – The power to inspire
- 55 The Rothschilds and other JFS benefactors
- 69 From pupils to pupil-teachers
- 79 Jewish emancipation and government funding for Jewish schools
- 92 Poverty and absenteeism
- 102 Government payment only by results
- 106 School premises: modernisation and expansion
- 116 JFS and universal state education
- 123 From immigrant to Englishman
- 134 The end of Angel's era
- 141 Bureaucracy and reorganisation
- 147 A golden era I – Lawrence Bowman, Amy Marks and Leah Titleboam
- 159 Some old boys
- 163 A golden era II – Morris Bucks and Enoch Bernstein
- 176 Evacuation
- 186 War time efforts and post-war reconstruction – the stormy interregnum
- 205 Camden Town – Dr Edward Conway, the innovator
- 221 Mr Leslie Gatoff – Consolidator
- 225 Mrs Josephine Wagerman, Community approval and Grant Maintained Status

235	Ruth Robins – strategic planning
248	Glossary
250	Notes on sources
252	Select Bibliography
257	Index