CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements
page v

Glossary
xii

Part I. INTRODUCTION

1. Contesting the Resource
   - About this Book 2
   - Political Ecology and the State 4
   - Forests as a Contested Resource 8
   - The Forest Department as a Resource Manager 11
   - Conflicting Perceptions of Forest Use 17
   - Contesting the Resource 21

Part II. FROM LAISSEZ-FAIRE TO SCIENTIFIC FORESTRY

2. Pre-Scientific Forestry, 1824-1855
   - Laissez-Faire Forestry in Tenasserim 23
   - Challenging Laissez-Faire 32
   - When Legacies Meet: Forestry in Pegu, 1852-1855 36

3. Scientific Forestry: Control and Resistance, 1856-1881
   - Control 43
     - Creating a Forest Department 43
     - Bureaucratic Politics 51
     - Forestry and the Law 56
       - Resistance 61
       - European Timber Traders 62
       - Shifting Cultivators 67
       - Peasants 71
Contents

Part III. RATIONALIZING FOREST USE

4. The Era of Expansion, 1882-1901 78
   External Territorialization 78
   Internal Territorialization 84
   Non-Teak Forest Use 92

5. The Era of Consolidation, 1902-1922 99
   Timber Extraction by the European Firms 99
   Ecology and the Politics of Scientific Forestry 107
   Forest Crime as Everyday Resistance 117

Part IV. FIGHTING OVER THE FORESTS

6. Forests and Nationalism, 1923-1947 127
   Forests, Nationalism and Politics 128
   Peasant Access to the Plains Reserves 135
   Burmanization of the Forestry Sector 143

   Re-territorialization 158
   Socialism 168
   SLORC Forestry: New Directions? 177

Part V. CONCLUSION

8. Burmese Forest Politics in Comparative Perspective 194
   Contesting the Forest Resource 195
   Resource Management and the Forest Department 203
   Conflicting Perceptions, Contested Forests 212
   The Political Ecology of Forest Use 221

Appendix: A Note on Forest Lands and Species 226
Bibliography 230
Index 247