

FRANCO FERRAROTTI

THE END OF CONVERSATION

The Impact of Mass Media on Modern Society

Contributions in Sociology, Number 71

Greenwood Press

NEW YORK

WESTPORT, CONNECTICUT

LONDON

Contents

PREFACE	vii
1. THE INTERRUPTED CONVERSATION	1
Between Two Voids	1
The Paradox of Oral History	6
Talking among Human Beings	10
Reality as Spectacle	14
The Autonomy of the Medium	19
The Contribution of Harold Adams Innis	24
Knowledge and Information	28
The Proletarianization of the Soul	33
The Human Voice in Athens	36
2. THE CRISIS OF THE EVENT: THE DECLINE AND TRANSFIGURATION OF CHARISMA	45
The "White Tribe" in a Minority Position	45
End of History or Crisis of Elite Historicism?	50
The Limitations of European Culture in a Culturally Pluralistic World Situation	54
Charisma as the Extraordinary, Personalized Response to the "Challenge of the Exception"	57

Sects as Dispensers of Certainty in an Uncertain World	61
The "Children of Moon," or the Businessman as Prophet	64
From Absolute Obedience to Salvation	69
The TV Pope	71
The Mass Media and the Annulment of Determinants of Time and Place	76
3. NEW HISTORICISM AND LIFE HISTORIES	83
The Crisis of Historicism	83
History and Sociology	88
Life-Histories and the Historical Horizon	93
Preliminary Critical Remarks	96
Inference and Reproducibility	101
The Impossible Synthesis	107
The Personal Equation	113
The Interaction	117
Context and Temporality	127
ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY	141
INDEX	181