

Between Two Worlds

ETHNOGRAPHIC ESSAYS
ON AMERICAN JEWRY

EDITED BY

Jack Kugelmass

Cornell University Press

Ithaca and London

Between Two Worlds

ETHNOGRAPHIC ESSAYS
ON AMERICAN JEWRY

EDITED BY

Jack Kugelmass

Cornell University Press

Ithaca and London

Contents

Introduction	1
Jack Kugelmass
SECTION ONE The Search
1. Between Two Worlds: Notes on the Celebration of Purim among New York Jews, March 1985	33
Jack Kugelmass
2. Waiting for a Jew: Marginal Redemption at the Eighth Street Shul	52
Jonathan Boyarin
3. Becoming More of an Eskimo: Fieldwork among the Hasidim of Boro Park	77
Janet Belcove-Shalin
SECTION TWO Subcultures
4. The Secular Seder: Continuity and Change among Left-Wing Jews	105
Anita Schwartz
5. Rituals as Keys to Soviet Immigrants' Jewish Identity	128
Fran Markowitz
6. Rechnitzer Rejects: A Humor of Modern Orthodoxy	148
Elliott Oring

Contents

7. Flaming Prayers: Hillula in a New Home Ruth Fredman Cernea	162
8. Laughter That Hurts: Ritual Humor and Ritual Change in an American Jewish Community Riv-Ellen Prell	192
SECTION THREE Us and Them
9. A Goy in the Ghetto: Gentile-Jewish Communication in Fieldwork Research William E. Mitchell	225
10. "Salim's Going to Be Muslim Someday": The Negotiated Identities of an American Jewish Ethnographer Shalom Staub	240
11. Surviving Stories: Reflections on Number Our Days Barbara Myerhoff	265
12. The Making of a Miracle Jack Kugelmass	295
Index	325