

Remembering

the Lower

American Jewish Reflections

East Side

EDITED BY

Hasia R. Diner,
Jeffrey Shandler, and
Beth S. Wenger

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Bloomington and Indianapolis

HASIA R. DINER, JEFFREY SHANDLER, AND BETH S. WENGER

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Remembering the Lower East Side—A Conversation 1

Part 1. The Dynamics of Remembrance

1. Toward the Onomastics of the Great New York Ghetto: How the Lower East Side Got Its Name 13
2. Photographing the Lower East Side: A Century's Work 28
DEBORAH DASH MOORE
AND DAVID LOBENSTINE
3. Beyond Place and Ethnicity: The Uses of the Triangle Shirtwaist Fire 70
PAULA E. HYMAN
4. The Ghetto Girl and the Erasure of Memory 86
RIV-ELLEN PRELL
5. Constructions of Memory: The Synagogues of the Lower East Side 113
DAVID KAUFMAN
6. The One-Way Window: Public Schools on the Lower East Side in the Early Twentieth Century 137 140
STEPHAN F. BRUMBERG
7. Re-creating Recreations on the Lower East Side: Restaurants, Cabarets, Cafes, and Coffeehouses in the 1930s 155
SUZANNE WASSERMAN

Part 2. Contemporary Recollections

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 8. Turfing the Slum: New York City's Tenement Museum and the Politics of Heritage 179 | JACK KUGELMASS |
| 9. "Send a Salami to Your Boy in the Army": Sites of Jewish Memory and Identity at Lower East Side Restaurants 212 | EVE JOCHNOWITZ |
| 10. Tripping down Memory Lane: Walking Tours on the Jewish Lower East Side 226 | SETH KAMIL |
| 11. The Lower East Side in the Memory of New York Jewish Intellectuals: A Filmmaker's Experience 241 | JOSEPH DORMAN |
| 12. Performing Memory: "The Matzoh Factory" on the Lower East Side 257 | AVIVA WEINTRAUB |
| 13. Translating Abraham Cahan, Teaching the Lower East Side: A View from Italy 269 | MARIO MAFFI |
| Contributors 281 | |
| Index 285 | |