

Beyond the 'African Tragedy'

Discourses on Development and the Global Economy

Edited by

MALINDA S. SMITH

University of Alberta, Canada

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xv
Acronyms and Abbreviations	xvii
1 Discourses on Development: Beyond the 'African Tragedy' Malinda S. Smith	1
Part 1 Discourses on Development and Governance
2 Discourses on Development from Dependency to Neoliberalism Francis Owusu	25
3 Towards a Political Economy of African Development Discourse Jimi O. Adésinà	49
4 Towards a Critique of the Political Economy of NEPAD Ishmael Lesufi	69
5 When 'Good Economics' Does Not Make Good Sense Ian Taylor	85
6 Towards Humanising Governance in the African Political Space Adekunle Amuwo	105
7 The Seductive Discourses of Development and Good Governance Cosmas Mbuh	123
8 Global Governance of HIV/AIDS and Development Obijiofor Aginam	139

Part 2 African Development and the Global Economy

9	Globalisation, the Cotonou Agreement and the African Union Chaldeans Mensah	155
10	Gender, Financing for Development and Poverty Reduction Zo Randriamaro	173
11	Accumulating Capital for African Development Abdella Abdou	201
12	Challenges of Foreign Direct Investment Flows to Africa Simon Pierre Siqué and Jacob W. Musila	213
13	The World Trade Organisation, Global Trade and Agriculture Korbla Peter Puplampu	233
14	Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) and African Development Patience Akpan-Obong	247
	Bibliography	269
	Index	299