

---

Studies in Jewish Civilization—5

---

RELIGION IN THE AGE OF EXPLORATION:
THE CASE OF SPAIN
AND NEW SPAIN

Bryan F. Le Beau
Menachem Mor
Editors

Center for the Study of Religion and Society

The Klutznick Chair in Jewish Civilization

Creighton University Press

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Editors' Introduction	xi
List of Contributors	xv
Abravanel's Concept of Monarchy . . . . .	1
Rochelle L. Millen
Judaizing Women in Castile: A Look at Their Lives Before and After 1492 . . . . .	15
Renée Levine Melammed
Expulsion of the Jewish Community from the Spains, 1492 . . . .	39
Lewis A. Tambs
Columbus as Biblical Exegete: A Study of the Libro de las profecías . . . . .	59
Hector Avalos
The Mythical Jewish Columbus and the History of America's Jews . . . . .	81
Jonathan D. Sarna
The Other Side of the Story: Indigenous Interpretation of Contact with Europeans . . . . .	97
Dale Stover
Catholic Evangelization in the Pueblo World . . . . .	117
Gordon Bronitsky
American Indians, Ten Lost Tribes and Christian Eschatology .	127
Gershon Greenberg

Religious Conflicts between Sephardic and Christian Settlers in 17th and 18th Century North America . . . . .	149
Yitzchak Kerem	